

Spring Semester Begins On January 25

"WE JUST CAN'T SEEM TO GET INTO A POSITION TO STUDY FOR EXAMS!" This seems to be the problem of John Beal, Chuck Metcalf, Jim West, and Gary Blake; and friend "Vootie," who is the only intellectual-looking one in the bunch. Vootie's sole comment; "Exams will be held!"

Pre-registration Procedure Starts New '60 Schedule

Put up your towel; stock up on coffee; and prepare to hit the books. Tonight exams begin—yes, quiet hours reign supreme, and sleep slips out of the picture for the next two weeks.

Grades for the fall semester will be posted on January 25, prior to registration. Those students on probation who have to appeal will be notified on Friday, January 22. Appeals will be made to the Academic Standards Committee.

The spring semester will begin on Monday with registration procedure. Sophomores will register first beginning at 8 a.m., with freshman registration following.

In addition to the regular semester courses, there will be several new night courses—English 15 (public speaking), office machines, and descriptive geometry on Monday evenings; and a refresher-type course in typing and shorthand on Tuesday nights.

The refresher class in typing and shorthand is for those who have had the course and the instruction will be geared to the individual level of performance. Mrs. Barbara Hardesty will be the instructor.

MSF Begins A Busy New Year

Methodist Student Fellowship has been busy for the past weeks. Last week the members were in charge of the vesper program. Those taking parts on the program were Helen Johnson, Joan Allison and Manuel Wortman, who gave a very inspiring talk on "The Life of One Man."

Mr. Reed was guest speaker at the regular M.S.F. meeting Sunday night, January 10. His topic was "The United States—A Land of Promise."

Plans for attendance to the North Carolina Methodist Students Conference to be held January 29-31, 1960 were discussed. Host for the Conference will be West Market Street Methodist Church and Bennett College in Greensboro. Dr. Joseph Matthews from Austin, Texas, will be the main speaker, and the theme of the Conference will be "God's Truth in a Changing Dimension."

Registration will be $5.00 and should be in to the Conference by January 22, to guarantee housing and meals.

All the Methodist students are urged to attend. Those interested should contact Dean Plant, Joe Saunders, or Helen Johnson as soon as possible.

PHI THETA KAPPA FETES AT SUPPER

PHI THETA KAPPA has been active on campus this year. Before the Christmas holidays, the girls, Judy McManus, Betty Hornaday, Dee Carden, and Celia Hooper prepared a Southern style fried chicken supper for the advisor, Dr. Burt Loomis and the following members; Joe Litaker, Elmer Norwood, Choo Kim, Joe Harris, Max Walser, Sherrill Michael.

Mr. Karl Harrell was guest speaker at the last meeting Friday, January 8. He presented soliloquies from Shakespeare and monologues from Edgar L. Masters' Spoon River Anthology.

Plans were discussed for the tapping of new members. This ceremony will take place during an assembly program after official grades are in, sometime in February.

CUPID CUTS CAPERS

According to the girls, Cupid was busy during the Christmas holidays. Terry Brittain, a day student, was married to Thomas Corn on December 20; and Jerry Whitmire, another day student, was married to Carolyn Fray Williams.

Recital At Brevard College On January 25 To Feature Piano And Violin Selections

A lyceum program will be held on January 28, Registration Day at 8:15 p.m., in the Sims Campus Center Building Auditorium. This will be a concert by two artist members of the Department of Music of the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill: Edgar Alden, violinist, and William S. Newman, pianist. Their announced renditions will include works by Handel, Devorak, and Vaughn Williams.

Dr. Newman is not unknown to Brevard, for he appeared here in a concert several years ago and is one concerto was accompanied by our own Mrs. Louise Miller.

Attendance is required and tickets will be placed in students mail boxes on January 28. Each student is requested to sign his name as it appears in the school records on the right ticket so there will be no chance of an error in checking attendance. Absence from a lyceum program equals two chapel absences.

BJC Librarian Receives Honor

Mrs. Elizabeth J. Holder, head librarian at Brevard College, had recently been appointed to the Editorial Board of North Carolina Libraries, the official publication of the North Carolina Library Association. Mrs. Holder has also been, during the past year, a member of the Advisory Board of the School of Library Science at University of North Carolina.

This information, released by the Public Relations Department of Brevard College, is another example of the many fine accomplishments earned by our excellent faculty.
