

Many Receive Degrees, Make Plans, Reveal Future

Joan Amelia Allison, daughter of Mrs. J. B. Allison, of Old Fort, will major in elementary education. She will continue her studies at Western Carolina.

Warren Jennings Atkinson, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Nolte, of Jacksonville, Fla., is majoring in engineering. He will attend Clemson College this fall.

Clegg Wallace Avett, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Avett, of Hudson, North Carolina, will graduate with an A. A. degree. He plans to enter the University of North Carolina this fall, and will major in journalism.

Bill Barnes, son of Dr. W. C. Barnes of Charleston, S. C., is planning to enter High Point College this fall. He will work toward a degree in music there, and will do graduate work at some other institution.

Charles Alexander Brown III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Alexander Brown, Jr., of Cleveland, will major in forestry.

Stephen Webb Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Brown of Asheville, will receive his A. A. degree from here. He plans to go into the ministry, and will enter High Point College, and from then he will go to Emory Seminary.

Dee Carden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Carden, of Concord, plans to major in art. Her future is undecided.

Thomas Eugene Carpenter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Carpenter, of Cherryville, will major in business administration. His plans are indefinite.

Martha Helen Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Clark of Concord, plans to major in history and elementary education, and will continue her studies at Catawba College. After she receives her teacher's certificate she wants to go to business school at night.

Peggy Sharon Cline, daughter of Mr. Willie Cline of Belmont, will teach mathematics. She will continue her education at W.C.U.N.C.

Sara Faulkner Cox, daughter of Mr. H. L. Cox, of Lexington, is majoring in English. Her plans are incomplete.

Lee O. Creede of Greensboro, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Creede. Lee is a business administration major and hasn't decided about his future, other than his wife and family.

John Paul Davenport is a religion major and plans to attend Appalachian State Teachers College next year. Paul and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Davenport, are from Ingalls.

Thomas Austin Dickens is a liberal arts major and plans to attend Western Carolina next year to take a concentration course in radio and television. Tom is from Black Mountain, as are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Austin Dickens.

Donna Rebecca Dotson is an English major and plans to attend either High Point or Western Carolina College next year. Donna is from Black Mountain, and her parents are Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Dotson.

Margaret H. (Peggy) Edmiston is from Jacksonville, Fla., and plans to major in religion. Peggy plans to go to Scarritt College next year, and when she graduates, help keep juvenile delinquents out of jail. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Edmiston.

Betty Lind Eure from Morehead City, is a psychology major. Betty plans to attend Ohio State next year. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Eure also of Morehead City.

Kenneth Wayne Faulkner from Gastonia, will attend the University of North Carolina next year but he is not sure of his major. Ken's parents are Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Bradley of Gastonia.

Indian Trail, is the home of Roger Craig Ford. Craig is planning to major in religion at High Point College next year. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Ford.

James Gant of Walkertown, is interested in foreign language as a vocation. Jim plans to attend Pfeiffer College next fall. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Gant.

Although Charles William Gibbs is undecided about his immediate future he does plan to study engineering later. Charles is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Gibbs of Nebo.

Richard Eric Greene, from Oteen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Greene. Eric will major in English with an area in journalism and radio at Western Carolina College.

Richard Eugene Greene is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Greene, from Asheville. Richard's major field is science. He plans to continue in this field.

Edna Telfair Grimes is the daughter of Mrs. Edna J. Grimes of Salisbury. Edna's major is primary education. She plans to get married this summer and find a job.

Francis Amsden Guffey, Jr., is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Guffey, Sr., of Oak Hill, West Virginia. Francis' major field is engineering. He plans to work on road construction this summer.

A day student from here in Brevard, Lois Hamilton is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hamilton. Lois will major in elementary education at Western Carolina College and will become a teacher in the grammar grades after her graduation.

Betty Lou Harper is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Harper from Marble. Betty's major field is home economics. She plans to go to Woman's College in Greensboro, next year. After she graduates from W.C., she plans to do work in Home Extension.

Joseph S. Harris is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack D. Harris, of Asheville. Joe's major field is personnel management. Next year, he plans to go to University of North Carolina.

Leroy Hill is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy L. Hill, of Thomasville. Leroy's major field is business administration. Leroy plans to go to High Point College next year in furthering his field in business administration.

Beverly Jo Holloway is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Holloway from Waynesville. Beverly's major field is pre-nursing. She plans to go into nurses' training next year.

Celia Irene Hooper is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ferry Hooper, of Canton. Celia's major field is elementary education. Celia will graduate with an A. A. degree and next year she plans to go to Berea College. There she plans to get a Master's degree in English.

Betty Lou Hornaday is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Royall Stamey Hornaday, of Asheville. Betty's major field is Medicine. She will receive an A. A. degree and next year she plans to go to the University of North Carolina. When she graduates from the University, she plans to be a doctor.

Paul Anderson Howard, Jr., is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. Howard Sr., of Kings Mountain. Andy's major field is mechanical engineering. He plans to go to Clemson and after he graduates from Clemson, he plans to go into the service.

Graceful ballerina Susan Hunt comes to us from Gastonia. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Hunt. Susan will go to Appalachian State Teacher's College, where she will study elementary education.

From across the mountains comes Rayford Jenkins of Clyde. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Jenkins. Rayford will enter the University of North Carolina this fall to study chemistry and industrial relations. After that, he plans to secure a position in the field of business administration.

Helen Jane Johnson is the daughter of Mrs. Dorothy Wright of Canton. Helen's major field is primary education. Next year she plans to go to Appalachian College and after she graduates from Appalachian she plans to teach.

A liberal arts major, Charles Jennings Kendall comes from Asheville. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Kendall. After graduation from Pfeiffer College, he plans to teach fine arts.

From the "Land of the Morning Calm" comes Choo Kim, son of Mr. and Mrs. Yong Chin Kim. Choo's plans are to further his major, engineering, at M.I.T. or North Carolina State and then return to Korea to work.

Old Kong Kong sent us Chi Kong Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Y. O. Lee. Clemson is C. K. Lee's choice of colleges. There he will work with civil engineering. After that, he plans to pursue a career in engineering.

From the big city of Maiden, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Lineberger sent their son, Harold Lee to BJC. Harold is majoring in chemistry and plans to attend the University of Tennessee.

Who wants to teach English? From Concord comes the answer—Joe Lester Litaker, son of Mrs. Eleanor Litaker. High Point is Joe's choice of colleges in which to pursue his English career.

Her major field is religion, and her ambition is to be a director of Christian education. This is Sara Lowdermilk, daughter of Mrs. T. F. Lowdermilk of Asheville. Sara will attend Pfeiffer College after her graduation.

We all know Judith Arlene McManus, as Judy, the smiling gal who has had the hard job of editing the CLARION. She is the daughter of Mrs. Juanita McManus of Charlotte. Judy will study English education at Pfeiffer, while working in the field of journalism. This summer, she plans to have a job with the Charlotte News and Observer.

It is very noticeable from that slow southern way of speaking that she is from Charleston, S. C. This is Carole Emmy Mappus, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Mappus. Carole plans to become an X-ray technician.

Columbia, S. C., is the home of Donald Marchant, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Marchant. This boy likes figures so well that he plans to enter the field of accounting after he graduates from the University of South Carolina.

How could Mrs. Lobdell have run the biology lab this year without Allison Sherrill Michael, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Michael of Lexington? Sherrill will major in German at the University of North Carolina.

Minerva Morgan plans to become a primary education teacher after finishing East Tennessee State College. Minerva is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Morgan, of Democrat.

Elizabeth Suter Neale of Charlotte, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Neale, plans to attend High Point College. Her major field is French, to be used in the diplo-

—Turn to Page Eight