Tornadoes Beat A-B, Mars Hill; Lose To Young Harris

In the three games the Brevard College Tornadoes have played since the Christmas holidays (Ed. note — the game at Gardner Webb had not been played when this issue went to press,) they have racked up two conference wins over Asheville-Biltmore and Mars Hill and dropped a non-conference game to Young Harris, Georgia.

On January 5 the Brevard team played Asheville-Biltmore in the Brevard College gym. Tom Barbee and Charlie Jacobs made 24 and 21 points respectively to lead the home team to an 87-43 win. Arch Smith led the losers with 14 points.

The next night, January 6, the Tornadoes again played on the home court, this time meeting the team from Young Harris College in a non-conference tilt. The final score in this close, hard-fought game was 84-77. Don Wade bucketed 31 points for the winners, and teammates Larry Cart and Don Jones added 14 and 12. For the losers, Larry Brooks was high with 18 points. Barbee and Jacobs hit for 17 and 12.

January 9 the Brevard players traveled to Mars Hill College for a conference game. Four of the Tornado starters hit in the double figures as Brevard beat Mars Hill 74-62. Barbee hit for 23, John Eller for 17, Jacobs for 13, and Glover Coggins for 11. Bill Holston of Mars Hill had 22 and Dave Hughes 13.
