

Two Ends—one to think with, one to sit on—Success is determined by which one is used the most.

The Clarion

Commencement
Is the Beginning!
Good Luck.

VOLUME XXX

BREVARD COLLEGE, BREVARD, N. C., MAY 24, 1963

NUMBER 15

Commencement, Baccalaureate Speakers Listed

College Plans "Self-Study"

Brevard College has already begun a program which formally is scheduled to begin next September — a detailed study of every aspect of its life and program. While the analysis is termed a "self-study" and is conducted primarily by committees of the faculty, administration, and board of trustees, an inspection team designated by the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary School will visit the campus and review the

—Turn To Page Four

Building Fund Shows Increase

The Brevard College Development Fund Campaign which began last March when President Emmett K. McLarty announced that an anonymous donor had made a pledge of $100,000 on condition that the college raise $125,000 has received $71,581.83 in cash and pledges toward matching the amount that must be raised.

Citizens in the town of Brevard contributed $60,968.50. Of

—Turn to Page Three

Martin To Serve As Chief Marshal

Brevard College has announced that Jane Martin from Lewisville, N. C., will serve as chief marshal for the 1963 Commencement exercises on June 1-2.

Other Marshals chosen are Margaret Davidson from Marion, South Carolina; Edgar Tanner, Rutherfordton; Robin May, Rockville, Maryland; Melba Blanton, Concord; and Marion Staley, Garner.

Persons chosen as marshals rank highest academically in their class. It is one of the highest honors given to students who excel in scholarship and citizenship.

Their duties are to meet and register the guests at commencement, to usher at the exercises, and to lead the academic procession.

Mrs. Roy, recorder, has announced that of the 246 freshmen who enrolled in Brevard College in September, 1962, 177 have pre-registered for the fall semester next year. This is 72 per cent of the beginning number. However, of the students who returned for this year's second semester, 86 per cent have pre-registered.

DR. FRANK JORDAN

E. K. McLARTY

McLarty, Jordan To Address Sophs

President Emmett K. McLarty, Jr. will be the principal speaker at the Commencement exercises which will be held in the new gymnasium on Sunday, June 2, at 3 p. m.

The Graduation Day sermon will be given by Dr. Frank Jordan at 11 a. m. in the Brevard Methodist Church on June 2.

Dr. Jordan is a native of Walkertown, N. C. He received his A. B. and B. D. degrees from Duke University and was awarded a D. D. degree by Pfeiffer College.

Before his appointment as District Superintendent of the Winston-Salem District of the Western North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church, Dr. Jordan served as minister in Greensboro, Charlotte, Spencer, Concord, Mt. Airy, Shelby, and Thomasville. He has been a member of several boards of the Conference.

Mrs. Brona N. Roy, recorder, reports that the graduating class will be the largest in college history. Ninety-eight students are eligible for an Associate in Arts degree and twenty-five members are eligible for

— Turn to Page Four

Jones Wins Award

Mrs. Alma L. Dellinger and Mr. Richard D. Howe, directors of Annabel Jones Hall and Taylor Hall, respectively, have accepted checks of $50 and $25 in recognition of their superior standards in the housekeeping project sponsored by the Business Office.

Jones Hall received 8 points during the spring semester, Taylor Hall 4, and Green Hall 3. Independent monthly inspections by the Janitors Supply & Chemical Company of Greenville, S. C., determined point allocation.

Tanner Becomes Honor President

Bud Tanner, a freshman from Rutherfordton, N. C., was recently elected by the Phi Theta Kappa, the honorary scholastic fraternity on campus, to serve as president for the 1963-64 year.

Bud, an honor graduate from Rutherfordton-Spindale High School, has maintained a 2.8 average while at Brevard and

—Turn To Page Four

ELIZABETH HOLDER

MINNIE HUSSEY

KENNETH DUBOIS

M. THOMAS COUSINS

MARY JANE COUSINS

Five Faculty Members Leave Posts; Holder, Cousins Go to W.C.

Holder Goes to WC

Mrs. Elizabeth Jerome Holder, Librarian at Brevard College for the past five years, has resigned to become Head Reference Librarian of the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina.

Hussey to Retire

Mrs. Minnie M. Hussey, Assistant Librarian, has also resigned, and will move to Raleigh this summer to make her home.

Both Mrs. Hussey and Mrs. Holder came to Brevard in August, 1958, from Woman's College in Greensboro. Mrs. Hussey retired from the Woman's College library staff in 1957 after serving in various capacities, including Head of the General

Reading Room and Reader's Adviser since 1930. Mrs. Holder had been Assistant Reference Librarian and Assistant to the Librarian before coming to Brevard.

One of the major tasks undertaken by Mrs. Holder and Mrs. Hussey, together with Mrs. Stevenson, the third staff member, has been the recataloging of a large part of the library's holdings. Over 8,000 books have been assigned new numbers and the entire card catalogue revised, so that an accurate record of the book collection can now be maintained.

DuBois Leaves

President McLarty has also announced the resignation of Mr.

C. Kenneth DuBois, Head of the Art Department. Since Mr. DuBois came to Brevard in 1956, the college art program has provided an unusually good foundation to students who have transferred to either art schools or liberal arts colleges.

Mr. DuBois' contributions to the cultural interests of the town of Brevard as well as the college are highly regarded. He has conducted art classes for both adults and children in the Brevard community. During each school year he has arranged for a monthly art exhibit at the college which was open to the public.

A Phi Beta Kappa graduate from Union College, Schenectady, New York, Mr. DuBois taught English at Syracuse University for five years. During that time he completed the university's art course. He did further study at the University of Pittsburgh. For a number of years, he worked in New York City with William Suhr, famous restorer of paintings.

Cousins Takes New Job

M. Thomas Cousins, acting head of the Music Department, has resigned to become Musical Director of the Greensboro Symphony Orchestra and Resident Composer at Woman's College.

During his tenure here, Mr. Cousins was Resident Composer, Director of the College Choir, and Instrumentation. For the past two years, he has been Conductor of the Asheville Symphony Orchestra and the Chorale.

Compositions that have won national acclaim for Mr. Cousins include Moses and Barbara Allen. His compositions for symphonic band and chorus are performed by professional, university, and community organizations throughout the country.

Mrs. Cousins Moves Family

Mrs. Cousins, who teaches the girls' freshman health classes and girls' sophomore physical education, has also resigned. She will join her husband at Woman's College where she will spend the first year getting her family settled. Her plans after that have not been decided.