Hendersonville Favored In WNC Sectional Track Meet Here Friday

Hendersonville's defending champs rule as favorites of the third annual WNC Sectional Track Meet to be held here Friday.

Meet director, "Chick" Martin, athletic director of Brevard College, reveals that heats for running events and preliminary trials for field events will get under way at 11 a.m. Friday.

Coach Martin stated that schools in District 8 of the North Carolina High School Athletic Association regardless of classification are eligible to participate in the meet.

The meet will be run over the quarter-mile grasstex oval at Brevard Junior College with NCHSAA rules being observed. The first and second place teams in each relay event and first three finishers in each individual event qualify for the state track event qualified for the state.

Hendersonville was rated as team favorite for the WNC sectional on the basis of its undefeated record of seven wins including the News-Piedmont Relays, WHKP Relays, Southern Relays and Blue Ridge Conference. Expected to offer the strongest challenge is Enka with its strong relay teams and superb field event performers.

Lee Edwards, Brevard, Reynolds and West Henderson also boast strong teams.

Plans for the sectional were drawn up last week by a committee consisting of Martin as chairman, Walt Shuford of Lee Edwards, Cliff Brookshire of Brevard, Bill McElrath of Enka and Rob Brown of Hendersonville.

Early indications are that more than 15 teams and over 400 athletes will be entered in the meet. In view of performances thus far in other meets existing records aren't expected to withstand Friday's assault in at least eight events if good weather prevails.

The schedule for the sectional events follows:

11:00 a.m. — Trials in high hurdles, discus and road jump finals.

11:15 — 100-yard dash heats.
 11:30 — 180-yard low hurdles heats.
 11:45 — 220 yard dash heats.
 1:30 p.m. — Shot, pole vault and high jump finals.
 2:30 — 120-yard high hurdles finals.
 2:40 — 100-yard dash finals.
 2:50 — mile run.
 3:00 — 880-yard relay.
 3:15 — 440-yard dash finals.
 3:30 — 180-yard low hurdles finals.
 3:45 — 880-yard run finals.
 4:00 — 220-yard dash finals.
 4:15 — Mile relay finals.

1964-65 Tornadoes Will Compete In Broome Tech Christmas Classic

When the Christmas vacation rolls around next year the Brevard College Tornadoes with Coach "Chick" Martin at the helm, will be rolling into Binghamton, New York, on December 29th to compete in the Broome Tech Christmas Classic basketball tournament to be held there December 29-30.

The Tornadoes, who finished the past season ranked ninth in the nation after playing in the National Junior College Tournament in Kansas, will be playing with three other highly ranked junior college cage teams in the annual tourney at Binghamton.

Other schools in the tourney are Joliet, Illinois Junior College, Jackson, Michigan Junior College, and the host Broome Tech cagers.

Coach Martin who announced the acceptance of the invitation by the Tornadoes, was most pleased that his quintet had been invited to participate in the classic.

All three teams that are in the tournament besides Brevard are constant participants in the national tournament in Hutchinson. From our view point we will predict the Tornadoes to give the other teams all they can handle.

Brevard Girls Participate In Tennis Day

A number of Brevard coeds traveled to Converse College two weeks ago for a day-long tennis event with girls from several different schools in the Carolinas.

Converse, which is located in Spartanburg, S. C., welcomed girls from Sacred Heart Junior College, Winthrop College, Limestone College, Anderson College, The University of North Carolina, and Brevard.

The event was a Round Robin tournament, which meant that every girl had the opportunity to participate, and played every other girl.

From Brevard, Athena Brown, Tommie Bowman, Cheryl Holman, and Jane Martin participated. The winner was a girl from the University of North Carolina in Chapel Hill.

Brevard Loses To Wingate

After the baseball team dropped a 12-7 verdict to Wingate on April 28th they still met with bad luck as they lost two double headers in a row, losing to Anderson and Spartanburg respectively.

In the Anderson games David Cort hit safely in four out of seven times at bat. Cort went three for four in the first game and one for three in the second.

In the opener it was Westmoreland against Westmoreland. Anderson's Westmoreland was the winning pitcher over Brevard's Westmoreland. LeRoy Westmoreland also lost the second game.

Spartanburg clipped the Tornadoes 5-4 and 5-1.

Mike Wells clouted a home run for Brevard in the sixth inning of the first game with none aboard.

A foul ball record may have been set by Brevard catcher Joe Humphries. In the sixth inning Humphries fouled off 12 straight balls before he flyed out to the left fielder.

Robert Stallings was robbed of a sure homer in the bottom of the seventh inning when the center fielder raced far to his right and caught the ball just before it was about to clear the hedge. Stallings is beginning to make a habit of being robbed of home runs as he was also robbed in the Wingate game.

Brevard is host to Gardner Webb in a double this afternoon with the first game getting under-way around 2:30.

guests in the cafeteria.

The formal May Dance, "Highland Spring," began at 8:00 p.m. in the College gymnasium. Amid dogwood blossoms and waterfalls, guests danced to music provided by the "Rhythm Makers" of Brevard.

After the evening presentation of the Queen and her court, Geary Crist, master of ceremonies, introduced the entertainment for their pleasure. Priscilla Dalway and Dean Jevons sang songs suited to the occasion. The Queen and her court danced to a tune written especially for them, "Sweet and Lovely."

There was some confusion a little later when escorts began searching for their umbrellas, but all turned out well and everyone enjoyed the evening.

cruelty or the selfishness of fathers or guardians, the heartlessness of women, hypocrisy, and what passed for atheism, and the dishonesty of doctors, his characterization gives so much pleasure that no one feels his lesson is wearisome. He is still considered the undisputed master of the social comedy.
