Brevard College Donor Honors Former Teacher

The James Addison Jones Library of Brevard College has received a gift of $1,750 from C. Grier Beam of Cherryville for the purchase of books. It was given in appreciation of the life and work of Cary Hoyt Trowbridge, who served longer than any other person in an administrative capacity in Brevard College and its forerunner institutions.

Trowbridge and his wife came from Missouri to Brevard Institute in 1907 when it was an industrial self-help school, and was superintendent until 1923. During his administration "Old Taylor," later known as West Hall, was brick-veneered and modernized. Spencer Hall, now Dunham Hall, was built and many additions and improvements were made in the academic program.

He went to Weaver College, Weaverville, as president in 1923. The depression made it necessary for the Methodist Church to consolidate its smaller colleges, and Weaver College was merged with Rutherford College to form Brevard College on the campus of the old Brevard Institute, which closed the year before.

Mr. Trowbridge returned to Brevard as dean of the new institution. The following year he was made vice president, and he served in that capacity and as teacher of chemistry and physics until his retirement in 1950. He and Mrs. Trowbridge now live at the Methodist Home in Charlotte.

C. Grier Beam, a former student of Trowbridge at Weaver College and a graduate of N. C. State College, is president of Carolina Freight Carriers Association. Since he became a member of the Board of Trustees of Brevard College in 1958, he has given generously to the development program of the college. This latest gift permits purchase of important basic reference books needed especially in the Chemistry and Physics Department.

Queen for a Day

Sweetheart Ball Slated

Bebe Garrett, Sophomore candidate, and Alice Holman, Freshman attendant. Standing are Sandy Zibelin and Linda Caruthers, Sophomore candidates.

Tomorrow night, the Delphian Sweetheart and her court for 1964-65 will be presented to the student body at the annual Valentine Dance. The two freshman attendants, Alice Holman and Cindy Hunter, and the three sophomore Sweetheart candidates, Lynda Caruthers Bebe Garrett, and Sandy Zibelin were elected by the Nemos and Delphians last week.

Miss Lynda Verne Caruthers from Arlington, Virginia, made her beauty debut as the freshman representative to the Valentine Court last year. Her interests are painting, reading, music - especially jazz, people-watching, and boys from "Choc-taw, Mississippi." The talented and lady-like sophomore plans to attend East Carolina next year to study art and interior design. Her escort for the dance will be Mr. Geoffrey Plain.

Hailing from Charlotte, North Carolina, is Miss Bebe

Dale Garrett, the vice-president of the Nemos. She was the business manager of the Clarion last semester, is a member of the Business Club, and enjoys ice-skating. Bebe's plan for the future is to do secretarial work for the government. She will be escorted to the dance by Mr. Steve Ferrell.

The tall and attractive Miss Sandra Irene Zibelin comes from Wallace, North Carolina. Last year she was elected Miss Freshman and May Court attendant. Sandy lists art, music, tennis, swimming, sailing, and basketball players among her interests. She plans to attend East Carolina next year to major in interior decorating and minor in sociology. Mr. David Morrow will escort "Zib" to the dance.

Miss Alice Nevada Holman is from West Jefferson, North Carolina. Besides being freshman attendant to the Christmas Court, she was high school

Prom Queen and Miss Ashe County. The lovely freshman enjoys dancing, sewing, piano, and the music of the Echoes. Alice is a home economics major with aspirations to teach. Her escort will be Mr. John McCannless.

Lively and full of mischief is the other freshman class representative to the Sweetheart Court. Miss Cynthia Hunter. Cindy, who comes to us from Canaan, Connecticut, was Prom attendant at her high school. Her interests include snow-skiing, sewing, and the Mountaineers Club. Miss Hunter plans to teach in elementary school. She will be escorted Saturday night by David Ellerbe.

The Nemos and Delphians have reason to be proud of their choices of beauty for their court. Whichever of the lovely sophomores the Delphians elected to be their queen will be well worthy of the title.

COLLEGE DAY IS HELD

From 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. on Feb. 11, Brevard College held its seventh annual Senior College Day Program. Representatives from 25 colleges were present in the Student Lounge to answer students' questions.

The purpose of this event, as stated by Mr. W. Glenn Hardesty, Director of Public Relations at Brevard College, is "to give students an opportunity to talk with representatives from senior colleges to which they are considering transferring."

Young people attending Brevard were invited to go in any time during the five hours to discuss with the representatives such items of concern as transfer of credit, cost, financial aid, and admission requirements, at the various schools.

Following is a list of the schools (and their representatives) that participated in Senior College Day: Springfield College, Springfield, Mass.: Mr. Paul Roberts; Limestone College, Gaffney, S. Tornadoes Smash Mounties

The Tornadoes beat the Mounties of North Greenville 99-73 Wednesday night in their best performance of the year.

The Mounties took the lead by three points at the end of the first three minutes. Brevard then found the basket and at the end of ten minutes they lead by 13 points. From that point on, the outcome of the game was evident.

By half time the team had chalked up a 21 point lead, as the score stood 54 to 33.

The Mounties staged a slight rally in the first minutes of the second half and cut the Tornado lead down to seventeen. It was short lived, however, and the Tornadoes scored 45 points to North Greenville's 40.

Brevard had four men in double figures, led by Larry Burch with 24. Bob Pickens followed with 15, Sherman Fearing had 14 points, and Bruce Smith scored 11.

Other Brevard scorers were Joe Nesbitt with 9 points, Dave Morrow with 5, Duane Morgan, who scored 7 points, Larry Runion with 8, and Dennis Houston and Steve Shoemaker, who scored 4 each.
