

The discontinuance of life by no means is death . . .

The Clarion

Just look one day around campus as all the lifeless souls go by.

Volume XXXIV

BREVARD COLLEGE, BREVARD, N. C., OCTOBER 14, 1966

NUMBER 3

Brevard College Braces For '66 Homecoming

THE BEAUTIES of Brevard College — These girls were the candidates for the 1966 Homecoming Court. Of them, three sophomores, Marsha Chandler, Pam Thomas, and Rose Mary Williams; and two freshmen, Patti Page and Sheila Wilson, were chosen by the student body to represent the college.

(Otterness Photo)

Students Select Bounciest Co-Eds

The remaining six cheerleaders of the 1966-67 squad were elected at the student assemble held on October 11, at 1:15.

Carol Clayton, Jeanne Jessen, and chief Pam Thomas, the sophomore cheerleaders spent every afternoon working with the girls, perfecting their cheers, cartwheels, and splits. The enthusiasm and the ability of the girl to put herself across to a group were two of the criteria used to judge the participants.

The six girls chosen by the entire student body were Jessica Newman, sophomore; Edie Wysong, sophomore; Sheila Wilson, freshman; Sue Anderson, freshman; Patti Page, freshman; and Jackie Griffith, freshman.

Dean Eston Roberts also announced that the Moore Science Building would be opened as a study area in the near future.

The uses of the cut privilege, none for first semester students, one for every 3-hour course, if the student has a C average, and two if a B average is maintained were announced also. Dean Roberts also informed all students that cars must be registered by 1:00 on Friday, October 14, or go on automatic disciplinary probation.

Changes Bring Broader Curriculum

Each year at Brevard the curriculum is altered and new ones are added in order to keep the college up-to-date in its academics. Several courses have been expanded recently while additional ones have been placed on the curriculum for the first time.

A new approach in the science department is being used with the addition of Biology 15, taught by Mrs. Auth Alexander, Mrs. Doris Thompson, and Dr. Robert Jeffers. Biology 15 is designed to give the student an over-all look at the basic principles of life. Both botany and zoology are integrated into one fundamental course which gives the students a unified concept. Genetics, respiration, and other fundamentals of life are stressed. After the completion of Biology 15, the student may then choose between botany or zoology for second semester work.

A new three hour math course, is being offered under Mr. Ray Fisher. The math of finance teaches basic math while stressing mathematics as applied to business. The class includes studies in the procedures dealing with discounts.

—Turn to Page Four

Rock Collectors To Be Honored

A reception will be held on October 27, from 7:00 - 9:00 P. M. at the Moore Science Building in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Hilary Chelf and the rock collection which they donated to the Brevard Community.

Mr. Chelf, from Peoria, Illinois, will give a short lecture illustrated with slides at 7:00 in room 207. This collection contains stones from 30 counties plus the United States.

Refreshments will be served in the Faculty Lounge in the Beam Administration Building following the lecture. All students, faculty, administration, and towns - people are invited to the reception.

Day Students To Honor Politicians

The day students will hold an open house for the student leaders of Brevard College in the Day Students' Lounge from 9 to 11 on Friday, October 14, after the annual bonfire.

In addition to the present student leaders, Dave Ellerbe, president of the 1965-66 sophomore class, will be honored. One faculty member said, "He was

—Turn to Page Two

Beam Dorm Dedicated

The dedication of the Lena Sue Beam Dormitory was held Thursday, October 13, at six p. m., with Dr. Emmett K. McLarty, President of the College, presiding.

Greetings were given by Wiloughby Jarrell, Dean of Women; Carol Clayton, president of Beam Dormitory; Mrs. Tom Ramsay, an alumna of Brevard College; and by Dr. Embree H. Blackard, district superintendent of the Asheville district of the Methodist church, and a member of the Board of Trustees of the College.

A tribute to Mrs. Beam was given by the Rev. Lee Barnett. Following this, Mr. Henry McDonald, the architect of the

—Turn to Page Two

Trustees Meet

Trustees of Brevard College and their wives, together with members of the faculty, staff, student leaders, and guests, had dinner in the College cafeteria at 7 P. M., October 15. Dr. W. A. Kale of the Duke Divinity School gave an address on "The Need for Liberal Arts Education."

The Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees had its meeting in the conference room, Beam Administration Building, following dinner and the address. (Dean Harris conducted a question and answer period.)

The Trustees' Committee met from nine to eleven o'clock Friday morning, and the general Board of Trustees Meeting followed at 11 A. M. A buffet lunch was served for the Trustees and their wives in the student lounge at one o'clock Friday with the adjournment of the Trustees' meeting following.

Mrs. Alderman Steps Higher

Mrs. Mabel Alderman has recently been appointed Assistant Director of Admissions of Brevard College.

As secretary in the Public Relations office for several years, she is well-qualified for her new position. Mrs. Alderman worked closely with both Mr. Glenn Hardesty and Mr. Allan Wallace in her former job.

She also helps everyone around the college by arranging flowers, planning teas, or any

—Turn to Page Three

Eight Classes To Hold Reunions

This year's Homecoming will be a spectacular never before equaled at Brevard College. A number of activities welcome back the alumni and welcome, as well as entertain, the student body.

There will be a cross country track meet following the soccer game with Furman University. Brevard will play host to Gaston College, North Greenville, Anderson, and Asheville Biltmore. A new track has been planned and will prove to be challenging to the participants.

The soccer game will start promptly at 2:00. Furman is expected to be keen competition for Coach Gerhard Tauscher's team. During half-time the Homecoming Queen and her court will be announced. The sophomore candidates for that honor are Pam Thomas, Marsha Chandler, and Rose Mary Williams. Freshman candidates are Patti Page and Sheila Wilson. The newly elected cheerleaders for '66 - '67 will also be recognized.

The Office of Public Relations of the college is offering a $50 prize for the best exhibit that carries out the homecoming theme. The dorms, boys' and girls', and the Day Students are eligible for participation. The

—Turn to Page Two

Library Becomes Member Of ALA

Brevard College library has been admitted to the American Library Association which serves to promote library service and leadership. It serves libraries and librarians, described by head librarian, Mr. J. Dickson as "an equivalent of the doctors' A.M.A." The A.L.L. has, as part of its services, given valuable advice and counseling for the construction and architecture of the new library. Other services include reading lists, books standards, and requirements for college librarian courses, besides keeping librarians constantly up to date on library affairs.

SELECTIVE SERVICE
College Qualification Test
November 18 - 19, 1966
Asheville
(Deadline for application
October 21)

For details see:

Mrs. Roy - Recorder
Room 105, Beam administration building