

There are only two ways to be happy on this celestial ball. One is to have a clear conscience

The Clarion

The other, no conscience at all!

Volume XXXIV - BREVARD COLLEGE, BREVARD, N. C., NOVEMBER 26, 1966 Number 9

New Club Has "Shooting Irons"

Clarion Searches For 'Cool' Dressers

Who is the best-dressed girl on campus?

The CLARION, in a campus-wide contest, plans to find this girl. The contest, sponsored by GLAMOUR Magazine, will send the winner in as a semi-finalist for the TEN, BEST-DRESSED, COLLEGE GIRLS' LIST. The August issue of the magazine centers around these girls and colleges.

Each club will submit a candidate chosen on the basis of over-all appearance, posture, clothes and the ability to wear them, and how well she will represent Brevard College. The names of these girls must be in to Jenny Munro, editor of the CLARION, by December 3.

From this list of girls will be chosen five finalists by the panel of judges. Later the entire student body will select one girl to enter nation-wide competition.

Want To Live Abroad?

Any young person 17 to 40 now has a chance to live abroad.

The International Student Information Service (ISIS) in Brussels, Belgium, and the International Society for Training and Culture (ISTC), in New York City, are the two non-profit organizations which have developed this program over the past five years. As of today, 2,000 people have been placed in jobs abroad. Great Britain, Europe, Scandinavia, Africa, Japan, Turkey and various other countries make up the choice from which the student may choose.

There are nine categories of work ranging from Special (office work, etc.) to Camp Counseling, Hotel, etc. The salaries are the same as those paid to local citizens for the same work.

The ISI/ISTC Jobs Abroad Program guarantees a job year-round and summer, in an English, French, German, or other language area for two or more months. A foreign language is not required and is not as important as actually wanting to go abroad and work.

The Jobs Abroad Program insures the chance to learn about the culture and the people of almost any foreign country of your choice. Additional information will be posted on the bulletin board in the Classroom Building.

"A THOUSAND QUAIL, and there I stood with a jammed gun." Barry Wheeler, vice-president of Gun Club, tells his troubles to Ledford Carpenter, president, and Tommy Bradford, secretary.

Gun Club Meets, Elects Carpenter, Bradford, Wheeler

The Brevard College Gun Club, organized three weeks ago, is the first of its kind on campus.

At the first meeting of the Gun Club, Ledford Carpenter was elected president; Barry Wheeler, Vice President; Tommy Bradford, Secretary; and Drew Daniels, Safety Farshal. It is their responsibility to see that the organization promotes gun safety and knowledge of firearms. The members provide their own ammunition and firearms ranging from .22 caliber rifles to shotguns. To be eligible for membership a NRA (National Rifle Association) test must be taken. The club is open to sophomore men and women. The meetings are held every Thursday evening at 7:30 in the Classroom Building. Presently there are thirty-five members of the club. The Gun Club will hold contests and hunts and provide guest speakers for its members.

Dr. Jeffers and Mr. Tawny are the advisors for the Gun Club. Dr. Jeffers has set aside a portion of his property to provide a firing range for the organization.

Dr. McLarty Honored As V. P. Of Junior College Association

Dr. Emmett K. McLarty was recently elected vice-president of the North Carolina Association of Junior Colleges.

The Association's constitution states that: "The purpose of this association shall be to encourage understanding and appreciation of the different types of junior colleges. Further, this association shall promote cooperation among all its member institutions, particularly in its relationship with senior colleges in academic matters and in matters of transfer to senior institutions.

Mrs. McLarty To Represent Libraries

Mrs. E. K. McLarty has accepted appointment as Transylvania County's voting member of the newly incorporated statewide organization, North Carolinians for Better Libraries, Inc.

Mrs. McLarty will be liaison between library-interested citizens in the county and Raleigh headquarters of the organization and will attend the first annual meeting in Raleigh in 1967.

Plans for local action to improve libraries in the state's 100 counties will be coordinated at the meeting. Workshop sessions will discuss resources, financing, and organizing or reactivating county-wide groups of citizens to improve their own library facilities and service.

North Carolinians for Better Libraries is a non-profit organization of citizens whose purpose is to help each other help local libraries. The goal is for adequately staffed and stocked libraries meeting national and state standards accessible to every citizen in North Carolina.

Further, there shall be cooperation in extra-curricular activities such as concerts, lectures, and athletics. The association shall not concern itself with matters of accreditation." By virtue of his office, President McLarty has been asked to represent the association on the North Carolina Board of Higher Education which meets every two months in Raleigh.

Further, there shall be cooperation in extra-curricular activities such as concerts, lectures, and athletics. The association shall not concern itself with matters of accreditation."

By virtue of his office, President McLarty has been asked to represent the association on the North Carolina Board of Higher Education which meets every two months in Raleigh.

TALENT WANTED
for coffeehouse
contact Anne Hammerschlag or Tom Murphy.

DR. AND MRS. E. K. McLARTY