Build - A - School Drive Now Underway

HELP! Help Education Lift People is the slogan of the month, submitted by a BC student.

A total of $118.55 has been raised from Thursday, March 2. The Business Club and Phi Theta Kappa began the fund raising drive for the Build-A-School program. These two clubs pledged $33 together in December.

Taylor Hall, on March 4 and 5, had an open house and open lobby and sold food, the proceeds of which were given to the program. Mrs. Norris, house director, and Jack Peacock, dorm president, had charge of selling the refreshments, which were furnished by some of the Campus Ladies.

Beam, Jones, and Green are now selling sandwiches to raise money, while the Day Students donated cookies to be sold in the dorms. The House Councils are in charge of this activity. Other plans are in the making for the dorms, clubs, and individuals. Suggested has been a car wash, selling cookies in the day students' lounge, a match between the women's and All-Star volleyball team, and others. The Alumni have been asked to join in the effort.

If any student has ideas, he is asked to talk with Miss Nicholson, David Tibbs, or Jenny Munro.

Scholarships Offered; France

Five scholarships of $1,000 each are available to qualified students applying to the Institute for American Universities for an academic year at Six-en-Provence, in Southern France. In addition, $800 French Government Scholarships, reserved for French majors, and 25 tuition awards, are awarded each year.

The $1,000 scholarships are divided among majors in French, Social Sciences and Mediterranean Area Studies. (They are not available to students enrolled in the I.A.U. Summer Program or the I.A.U. Semester Program in Avignon). Information about the Institute for American Universities is available in college libraries, foreign study offices, or French Departments.

Applications should be made

New Members Join Staff In June

Two new appointments to the administrative staff at Brevard College, also, changes in assignments, effective in June, are announced by President Emmett K. McLarty, Jr.

Charles C. Cort will be the new Director of Admissions.

Joseph C. Bowles has been named Director of Public Relations, a newly created post.

Prior to these appointments, Admissions and Public Relations were combined in one department.

Mr. Cort, son of Mr. and Mrs. Erwin H. Cort, 90 Tunnel road, Asheville, graduated from Brevard in '63, magna cum laude.

He received his B. A. degree from Wheaton College, Wheaton, Illinois. He will complete work for his M. A. degree in June at Michigan State University.

Born in Greensboro, Mr. Bowles is the son of Charles Phillips Bowles, D.D. (deceased) and Mary Wooters Bowles. He earned his B. A. and B. D. degrees at Duke University.

During his student days, he was sports editor of the Duke Chronicle, served as manager of the baseball team and was an administrative assistant in the athletic department of the graduate school.

For the past two years he has been Director of Public Relations, Dean of Men and an instructor in Religion at Spartanburg Junior College.

Mrs. Mabel Alderman, who was appointed Assistant Director of Admissions last September, will discontinue her assignments in Public Relations to give full time to Admission.

Love To Be Discussed

"Love, Courtship, and Marriage" by Dr. John Folger will be heard by Westminster Fellowship at the Presbyterian Church on March 12, at 7:00 p. m.

Dr. Folger, a local doctor, speaks to the group annually. He is a member of the Presbyterian Church and is quite interested in young people and their problems and challenges.

After the program the group will have refreshments in the home of the pastor, Rev. Dan McCall.

All members are urged to attend.

Taylor Hall Begins BAS

Taylor Hall sponsored the kickoff for the "Build-A-School" project, last weekend, March 4-5, with an Open House and a sale of home-made bakery items, sandwiches, and punch. The successful sale made over thirty dollars which will be donated directly to the "Build-A-School" fund.

All the items for sale were donated to Taylor Hall from the Campus Ladies organization. The generous ladies made fudge, an assortment of cookies, candies, sandwiches, and punch.

Many students took advantage of the Open House to in-

Santi Is Versatile Man

Dr. Samuel Santi, co-director and chaplain of Casa Matera, the home for orphaned children in Naples, Italy, was guest speaker for the March 2 chapel.

The institution was founded in 1905 by Dr. Santi's father when he took two orphan children into his home. Seven buildings on seven acres of land now make up the institution. It presently accommodates 200 resident children and 230 children who come during the day. Since its founding, about 10,000 boys and girls have gone through the portals of Casa Matera.

After his talk, Dr. Santi entertained the students by playing several numbers on the violin. It was topped off with slides of Casa Matera, which lies near the ruins of Pompeii.

PTK Plans Semester

Phi Theta Kappa welcomed its five new members to the club at its meeting on March 7.

Judy Armentrout was the fifth student to accept the invitation to join. She is a business major, who plans to graduate in May.

Hours for the Book Nook were discussed and will be posted on the BN door as they are assigned. Mrs. Tauscher also announced that history maps were available to the students there and in her office when the Book Nook was closed.

Dean Willoughby Jarrell, with slides on Mexico, will present the program to PTK on March 21, at 7:00 in CB-205.

Alumni Adds To Family

Ronnie Constanza, who graduated from Brevard College in 1966, has a new addition to his small family.

On March 8, the Constanzas had a little boy. The couple, from Brevard, have one other child besides the baby.
