

Gun Club Holds "Shooten" Match

Saturday, twenty-five marksmen under the sponsorship of the Gun Club, met on the college property across the French Broad River, in the first of a series of competitive shoots

OMs. The first event, the .22 rifle at 30 yds. was won by Roland Day, scoring 44 of a possible 50 points. Second place went to Barry Wheeler, Charles Payne, and Junior Carpenter, all scoring 37 points.

The second event, the .22 pistol at 25 ft., was won by Wayne Kelley; Junior Carpenter was second.

The third event, the still-target shotgun at 30 yds., was won by Pete Skarinka, a dark horse to the shotgun event. Pete put 8 pellets in the bullseye with this single shot.

The last event, the clay pigeon, was won by Randy Burnett, who hit 9 out of 10. Second place went to Fred Davis and Barry Wheeler with 8 out of 10 each.

Because of its great success, the Gun Club is planning another shoot in the near future.

RONNIE SHERRILL proudly displays the Sportsmanship Trophy won during the recent Western Carolinas Junior College Conference tournament played at Forest City, N. C. The co-captain of the Tornados won this award because of his overall basketball ability and his manner of playing. This coveted trophy was one of the two personal awards given during the tourney, in which Brevard defeated Anderson, lost to North Greenville, and beat Lee McRae.

Martin To Visit Kansas

Coach Martin, beginning his third two-year term as Regional Director, representing 21 junior colleges in North Carolina, South Carolina, and Virginia, will attend the 26th annual meeting of the National Junior College Athletic Association to be held in Hutchinson, Kansas, from March 13 - 18. Coach Martin is serving on 7 committees: baseball, districting, football, soccer, eligibility, service and recognition, and is the chairman of the tennis committee.

DREW BARON, Brevard shotputter, winds up for a mighty heave in preparation for his field-event. The entire track team will soon be in action as the season swings into high gear.

Track Season Opens On 13th

The Brevard College track team open their season here at Brevard on Monday, March 13, when they entertain the Panthers of High Point College.

Coach Thad Talley has his Roadrunners well in shape and ready for this non-conference, practice meet with High Point. The field events will get underway at 3 o'clock and running events will start at 3:30.

"Please come out and support the Tornados this coming Monday and show them that the Brevard College students are behind them all the way!"
