

Diane Richie, Jessica Newman, Marsha Chandler, Sheila Gossett, Shuford Young, and

Alan Wallace Resigns At College, To Study, Travel

Glee Club To Tour North

The ever-active music department has again reached the time for its annual Glee Club tour. Under the direction of Mr. Harvey Miller, the Glee Club will begin a north-bound trip this year with several stops between Brevard and New York City.

The 42 members will sing in the following cities:

March 30 — Boonville, N. C.
 March 31 — Wilmington, Del.
 April 1—New York (Brooklyn)
 April 2 — New York
 April 3 — New York
 April 4 — Hyattsville, Md.
 April 5 — Vienna, Va.
 April 6 — Burlington, N. C.
 April 7 — Fayetteville, N. C.
 April 8 — Charlotte, N. C.

Part of the trip conflicts with the Easter vacation, and still the students are making an all-out effort to make the tour a success.

Some of the selections that will be sung are "Rejoice in the Lord," by Benjamin Britten; "Every Work and Thought," by Buxtebuda; selections from the "Sound of Music," and "Nothing Like a Dame" will be sung by the men of the choir.

The Madrigals, normally under the direction of Mr. Nelson Adams, will accompany the Glee club and be directed by Mr. Miller.

Throughout the year several of the students have been working for their own individual concerts. On March 18 at 8 p. m. three of the students will be giving their own recitals as proof of their hard work. Those performing will be Lesley Johnson, piano; Tim Bryson, Baritone horn; and Deanna Barnwell, piano. All are invited to attend the recitals for an enjoyable evening of entertainment.

Alan Wallace, after serving in several capacities at Brevard College for the past eight years, will retire from the staff in June.

"We accept Mr. Wallace's resignation with sincere regret," said President Emmett K. McLarty, Jr.

"He came to the college with a rich background of experience and unusual skills and has drawn from these to offer distinctive contributions in many areas of the college community life. He leaves the college with the esteem of administration, the faculty, and the students."

During his tenure, Mr. Wallace has taught Public Speaking and Drama. As Admissions counselor he has traveled throughout South Carolina, as far south as Florida and north to Connecticut, visiting high schools to present the Brevard College story to prospective students and to Guidance Directors. Almost 50 per cent of the college students now come from out of state.

He has been in charge of preparing and assembling the college catalog each year, designing and writing promotion brochures and handling publicity.

Mr. Wallace stated that his release from college assignments will make it possible to give full time to a project of private study, also, for him and Mrs. Wallace to do more traveling abroad next year.

The Wallaces came to Western North Carolina in 1959, after Mr. Wallace closed out a business career in Chicago. He was vice president in charge of radio and television programs at Needham, Louis & Brorby, advertising agency.

Mrs. Wallace too has been active in college affairs. She has served as chairman of the Campus Ladies Organization and has participated in various community projects. Presently, she is chairman of "Friends of the Library."

With the Wallaces go best wishes of the college.

Spring Court Soon To Be Presented

The Spring Court for the 1967 Spring Festival at Brevard College has been selected. The three sophomores and two freshmen will make their presentation to the college at that time when the Queen of the Court will be announced.

The sophomore candidates are Jessica Newman, Sheila Gossett, and Marsha Chandler. The freshman include Shuford Young and Diane Richie.

In addition to her tremendous interest in people and the out doors, Jessica is an avid lover of art. During the past summer she took extensive art courses at the U. of Miami in her home town. After graduation at Brevard, Jessica hopes to attend either Oklahoma U. or U. of Georgia.

Marsha Chandler is a business major from Jacksonville, Fla. In September of this year Marsha's main concern will be her duties as Mrs. William Barge. At that time she and Bill will make their home in Auburn, Alabama, where Bill is now attending Auburn U. In the field of business, Marsha hopes to eventually work for a criminal lawyer.

Sheila Gossett is from Murphy, N. C., and is majoring in math. Next fall she will attend

Wake Forest after which she will teach. For the present, however, Sheila is "looking forward to spending the summer water-skiing with John."

Shuford Young, from Gastonia, N. C., is planning to teach art. After Brevard, Shuford hopes to transfer to UNC at Chapel Hill.

Diane Richie, from Petersburg, Va., is presently a music major at Brevard. After completing her two years here at Brevard, Diane plans to get her BA degree in music from a college in the Washington, D. C. area.

New library to be completed before next year.

Library Behind Schedule

Many students have the impression that the new college library will be completed and ready for use after Easter vacation.

Outwardly, things do look good. The heavy machinery has been taken away; the window panes inserted; the soil smoothed over; the sidewalk has been cemented; even the cupola on the roof has been painted a bright white.

The only thing is that the

—Turn to Page Two