

Brevard Prepares For Best Homecoming Ever

Student Body Elects Court

The student body of Brevard College met in an assembly in Dunham Auditorium October 6, to choose from previously — nominated girls for the Homecoming Court.

Three sophomores and two freshmen were chosen. The sophomores chosen are Diane Ritchie of Petersburg, Va.; Patti Page of Gastonia, N. C.; and Shelia Wilson of Asheville, N. C.

The two freshmen attendants are Bonnie Brewbaker, from Bedford, Va., and Linda Smith, from Lenoir, N. C.

Diane Ritchie is familiar to us through her active participation in the S.G.A. as Social Chairman. She is also a member of the Euterpean Society, choir, and the Big Sisters. Last year she was a member of the May Court and was voted Miss Freshman.

Patti is a cheerleader and W.A.A. member and Big Sister. She is also a Euterp.

Shelia is a veteran member of the Homecoming Court, a Euterp.

—Turr to Page Three

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 14, 1967

HOMECOMING

- 10:00 a. m. REGISTRATION & COFFEE HOUR
Faculty Lounge, Beam Administration Building
- 2:00 p. m. SOCCER-Brevard vs. Tusculum College
Pre-Game Music by Brevard College Brass Ensemble
Halftime - Presentation of the 1967 Homecoming Queen
- 2:30 p. m. CROSS COUNTRY-Brevard vs. Wingate College, Lees-McRae College, Asheville-Biltmore College, and Western Community College
- 4:00 p. m. OPEN HOUSE in all dormitories and Ross Hall for all alumni and friends of the college
TEA — Jones Hall
- 8:00 p. m. HOMECOMING DANCE
Dunham Auditorium

"Haste ye back to the Highlands"

This is the weekend the sophomores have waited for since the beginning of the school term — Homecoming '67. This weekend all the old grads are back to renew friendships and to note the overall progress of their alma mater.

Homecoming '67 is, according to Brevard students, the best ever. Careful thoughts and intricate plans were laid over a month ago to make this Homecoming a really special event.

Decoration plans for Jones, Beam, Green and Taylor dorms were kept secretive until the unveiling today. Each dorm has worked extra hard in pursuing its Homecoming theme so that it might win the annual decoration prize of $50.

Besides decorating, the dorms have other plans for the weekend. Lena Sue Beam Hall is starting the weekend off with refreshments, consisting of hot chocolate and cookies, which will be served after the bonfire tonight at 9:30.

Taylor Hall will serve refreshments at their open house Saturday, and Jones Hall is having a tea.

All dorms will participate in Open House being held Saturday from four until six.

Highlighting the weekend will be the Homecoming Dance

—Turn to Page Three

Pictured above is a scene typical of the Brevard area, if one can label such a view typical. The beautiful mountain setting is a major factor in most students' decision to attend Brevard College. Many classes will graduate from BC before the mountain landscape alters its features. Many Homecomings will pass and be forgotten, but the mountains — and Brevard College — will endure.