

Sue Anderson Crowned May Queen

By Louise Bruster

"Spring Fantasy" was the theme of the Spring Dance sponsored by the Freshman Class. Sue Anderson was crowned queen of the spring court.

Queen Sue Anderson was escorted by Walter Clayton. Her court consisted of sophomores Brenda Wyke, escorted by Bill Hyland, and Marion King, accompanied by Stan Hayes. The freshman representatives were Melanie Beasley escorted by Beaver Hall and Leia Elg, accompanied by Bill Yanavary.

Fantastic Johnny C was the hit of the dance as he sung his recent hits.

Eddie Holey was also a featured singer of the show. Both singers were backed up by a terrific Negro band.

Helen Wright headed the decorations committee. The colorful displays of paper flowers hung on trellises, placed around the auditorium, and the wishing well were only a part of the varied decorations. From the center of the ceiling hung a chandelier of flowers. The Spring Court were seated in wrought iron chairs.

The Spring Dance this year was said to have been a great success with one of the best bands and shows ever to be presented here.
