

TORNADO WARNING!

By MARK TODD

The long 1969 - 70 Basketball Season is over for the Brevard College Tornadoes. The Tornadoes fell to a tough club from Ferrum, Virginia, in the regional tournament, and just didn't have it that night.

But it has been a good season for the Tornadoes, who have had to fight injury, ineligibility, and illness, and struggle with the resulting inconsistency all these things help bring about.

Truly the Tornadoes have had their ups and downs. However, coaches Martin and Burch, Sophomores Greg Headen, Joe Kagel, and Charlie Hunt, along with Freshmen Bob Wolf, Roger Jamison, Ed Humphrey, and all the rest who meant so much waiting in the wings while adding their support, deserve a pat on the back for a job well done.

The thing I will most remember about the Tornadoes is their never say die attitude, and the loyal support of their fans. I would like to have seen more people at the games, but the majority of people who did come were a real asset to the team.

I can truly say I enjoyed the season, and would like to congratulate everyone involved with making it so.

8 RECORDS SET DURING SEASON

Tornadoes Close Season With Loss In Region Ten Tourney

Brevard College's Tornadoes saw their hopes for another Region Ten National Junior College Athletic Association title dashed last Friday by host Ferrum College by a score of 95-62 in a contest which closed out the 1969-70 campaign for the local cagers.

Ferrum, undefeated in 22 contests, pulled away from Brevard in the final half as the taller and more powerful Panthers won the right to represent Region Ten in the NJCAA's national championship tournament beginning March 16th in Hutchinson, Kansas. Ferrum defeated Lees-McRae 95-71 in the championship contest March 7th.

Brevard finished the season with a 17-12 mark and a second-place finish in the Western Carolinas Junior College Conference. The Tornadoes set eight new school records in the process, re-writing the record books in both individual and team performances.

The highest-scoring Brevard quintet in history with a 79.4 average for the 29 games, the team set individual game records with most points scored (139), most field goals (60), and most rebounds (94) in a contest with Montreat-Anderson on February 7th.

Sophomore all-conference center Greg Headen set one individual game mark and four seasonal and career records in leading the Tornadoes to a strong finish in the WCJCC after a mediocre 6-7 start during the first semester. With Headen becoming eligible on January 20th, Brevard posted an 11-5 record during the last half of the season to match the 1968-69 Tornado mark of 17-12. Headen set a new single game standard with 33 rebounds against North Greenville on February 21st, breaking his own mark set just two weeks earlier in the Montreat-Anderson contest.

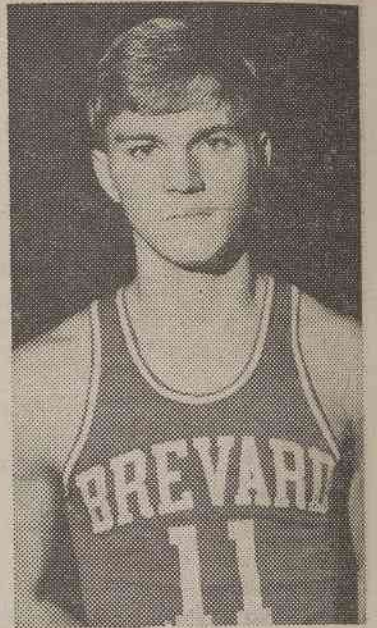

The 6-5, 185 lb. native of Liberty, also set the mark for most rebounds in a career with 611. He set the single season rebound mark last year with 327, playing the full 29-game slate. Headen hauled in 284 rebounds in 16 contests during the past season.

In addition, the big center closed his career as the second-highest scorer in Brevard history, tallying 1003 career points. Headen also set single season and career scoring average records with 24.4 and 22.3 respectively.

Only Headen and co-captains Joe Kagel and Charlie Hunt are lost from this year's squad. Coaches Chick Martin and Larry Burch will be searching for front-line talent to complement returning freshmen from the 1969-70 Tornadoes.

Top returning freshmen will be all-conference forward Bob Wolf, a 6-2 forward with a 16.3 scoring average, guard Roger Jamison, a 10-6 scorer who came on strong during the latter part of the season, and 6-5 Ed Humphrey, a defensive and rebounding specialist.

Intramural Volleyball Coming To End

Two games were played last week Beam 1 lost to Jones 2 15 to 3 and 15 to 4. Jean Palmer and Carolyn Spain of Jones 2 put up a mighty good performance. They both scored 12 points and 9 points respectively for the team Jones 3 beat Jones B. 15 - 13, 15 - 12, 15 - 11. Both played fair on the whole. But Susan Fransci of Jones 3 being more spirited than usual, marked up 12 points for her team. Jones B again suffered another defeat by Jones 2. T. Schaap was making pretty good headway throughout the game. She helped capture the victory by scoring 12 points.

Two games due on Monday,

March 8, turned out to be two walked over games. Jones Basement seemed to have totally given up when she forfeited another victory to Jones 2. Jones 3 showed up with 16 players the following afternoon. All were marked with enthusiasm to win. But they ended up playing with themselves as Jones 1 did not show up at all. Single tournament elimination will begin next week.
