Honor student is interviewed By John Warlick

This week 1 am interviewing honor student at Brevard College. In this interview I intend to find out the secrets of his or her success CLARION: Academically speaking why have you been so successful?

STUDENT: I feel that my good high school background has a lot to do with it. I also try to cultivate an interest in my studies, so I remember something from the course. The good grades just seem to follow You cannot just go by what I say because all honor students are different. CLARION: How long do you usually study a day? STUDENT: Oh, usually about thirty minutes. CLARION: What do you do with your spare time?

STUDENT: I have a lot of other activities, I want to have a social life also. A lot of my
