

PRESIDENT ROBERT DAVIS

Brevard College Opens With Formal Convocation

The first convocation for the fall of 1972 was held in Boshamer Gymnasium on Thursday 24 of August. The invocation was given by Chaplain C. Edward Roy and the introduction was given by Dr. Ben F. Wade, Dean of Brevard College.

President Robert A. Davis presented the address. The theme of President Davis' speech was Responsibility in the Academic Community. In his speech he stated, "Too be responsible is to be true to ones purpose." President Davis urged the new freshmen and the returning sophomores to be responsible in all phases of their academic life.

Chaplain C. Edward Roy gave the benediction after President Davis' address.

Brevard To Sponsor Art Show

Brevard College will sponsor an exhibition and sale of original graphic art by contemporary and old master artists. Arranged by the Ferdinand Roten Galleries of Baltimore, Maryland, the exhibition will be held on Monday, Sept. 11, 1972. The Exhibition will be on display from 11 a.m. to 8 p.m. in the Coltrane Art Building. The public is cordially invited.

Included in the exhibition will be over 1,000 original etchings, lithographs, and woodcuts by artists such as Picasso, Chagall, Miro, Dali, Goya, Renoir, Kollwitz, and many others including contemporary American, European, and Japanese printmakers. Prices start at $5.00 with the majority priced under $100.00.

A well-qualified representative of the Roten Galleries will be present at the exhibition to answer any questions the public may have regarding graphic art and printmaking. Established in 1932, Roten Galleries has one of the largest collections of graphic art in the country. The firm operates its main gallery at 123 West Mulberry Street in Baltimore. Ferdinand Roten Galleries specializes in arranging exhibition sales of original graphic art at colleges, museums, and art centers throughout the country.

Election News

The fall elections for class officers, Student Union Legislature representatives, judicial board, and social board will be held on Tuesday, September 12, in the front lobby of the college cafeteria. In order to vote, all students must register in the cafeteria on Monday, September 11. Actual voting will be during the three meal blocks on Tuesday. All students must present ID cards in order to vote.

Moran Appointed Dean Of Students

Dr. Robert A. Davis, president of Brevard College announced this past summer the appointment of Hugh A. Moran, Jr. as Dean of Student Affairs at Brevard College, effective July 15. Mr. Moran succeeds Robert G. Ferree who leaves the position to continue graduate studies at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro.

Mr. Moran, a native of High Point, North Carolina, is a 1967 graduate of Brevard College and received his B.A. degree at High Point College. While at Brevard College he was vice president of the freshman class of '66, and was a member of Kappa Chi, a religious organization on campus, and received a letter in soccer. He has continued his graduate studies in the area of Student Personnel and Guidance at U.N.C., Greensboro.

For two years he was employed by Western Guilford High School, Greensboro, where he taught language arts. More recently he has served as Program Director of the Sims Student Union at Brevard College in the area of student activities. His extensive experience also includes counsellor for several summers at Camp Gay Valley in Brevard.

In announcing the appointment, Dr. Davis stated, "We are pleased to have a man of Mr. Moran's background and experience for this important post. As a recent graduate of Brevard College, Mr. Moran brings considerable understanding of the programs and policies of the college. His work last year in the area of student activities will be helpful in his new assignment."

Mr. Moran is married to the former Kay Welsh of Charlotte, and she is also a graduate of Brevard College. They have one son, Hugh III, and reside at 114 Robinson Street, Brevard. Both Mr. and Mrs. Moran are active members of the First United Methodist Church in Brevard.

Student Union Offers Many Services

As everyone has seen by now, Brevard College has a beautiful recreational center known as the Student Union. The man behind the scenes is running the building is Mr. Alderman—Mr. A to many of us.

The Union is usually always neat and clean, thanks to a few rules and regulations set up for our benefit. If these rules are followed, the Union will continue to be a place where the students can relax and unwind.

Bulletin Boards — Please place all news items on the bulletin boards, not on the glass. Placing the material on the bulletin boards centralizes the news and eliminates the need for extensive window cleaning to remove tape marks. All notices placed on the windows will be immediately removed.

Book Store — The book store is open every day from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. except Saturday when it is open from 8 a.m. to 12 noon. The book store is closed on Sunday. Besides the common articles found in the book store, our book store offers a film service, a soon to be organized laundry and dry cleaning service, and a small scale bank for cashing checks. A restriction placed on cashing checks is that no checks will be honored after 4 p.m. on Friday. This is so the book store will not cash itself out.

Tornado Room — The Tornado room is open from 8 a.m. to 11 p.m. Monday through Friday; Saturday from 11 a.m. to 11 p.m.; and Sunday from 3 p.m. to 11 p.m. Shoes must be worn because of health regulations. No food leaves the Tornado room unless you leave the S.U.

Upstairs — The upstairs of the S.U. is open every day from 9 a.m. to 11 p.m. except Sunday from 3 p.m. to 11 p.m. Absolutely no food is allowed upstairs. Please conduct yourselves as you would if you had paid for the furniture. Furniture is expensive - check it out if you don't believe me. So please take care of what we have. Mail — Mail is delivered daily and on occasion, twice a day. Mail will be in the student's box by 10 a.m. During the time that mail is distributed, the window for package pick up will be closed. This is to provide the post office with enough helpers to sort and distribute mail. No mail will be delivered on Sunday. Mail posted in the post office room will leave at 8:30 a.m. Mail placed in the box after 8:30 a.m. will not leave until the following morning. Mail posted in the mailbox outside the S.U. will be picked up at 4:50 p.m.

Camping Equipment — Camping equipment should be rented during the week and picked up by 1 p.m. on Friday. Further details will appear as received.

With everyone's help and cooperation, the Student Union can very well be a main center for the fulfillment of student needs.

Dr. Davis On Private College Panel

Dr. Robert A. Davis of Brevard College has been elected to membership on the new advisory committee of private college presidents to the board of governors of the University of North Carolina.

Dr. Davis is the only Western North Carolina member of the committee.

The committee was formed by the Higher Education Act of 1971 and is part of Gov. Robert Scott's restructuring of higher education in the state.

The act calls for a liaison relationship between the public and private sector of higher education and states that the UNC board of governors "shall assess the contributions and needs of the private colleges and universities of the state and shall give advice and recommendations to the General Assembly to the end that the resources of these institutions may be utilized in the best interests of the state."

All requests from private institutions for the state assistance must now be submitted to the board for review and recommendation before being presented to any other state agency or the General Assembly.

Dr. Davis, who has been president of Brevard since 1969, is secretary of the N. C. Association of Independent Colleges and Universities and serves on other committees and commissions in the state related to higher education.

Prior to coming to Brevard, he was associate director of the division of higher education of the Methodist Church in Nashville, Tenn.

Active in community affairs, he is president of the Brevard Rotary Club, is on the board of the Brevard Chamber of Commerce and Brevard Music Center and has served as president of the United Fund and other community projects. He is also active in Boy Scout work.

A graduate of the University of Georgia, Dr. Davis did his graduate work at Emory and Yale universities and was a Danforth Scholar at Yale.
