Homecoming Big Success

The Homecoming for 1972 was a huge success. Activities began with a bonfire Friday night on the soccer field.

Saturday morning people could be seen scurrying around decorating the dorms in preparation for the judging. Judging was based on neatness, originality and relativity to the theme. First place went to Taylor Hall which had a General Store in the parlor.

Spirit was running high by the afternoon soccer game. Along with the beautiful weather, the enthusiasm of the students, and the Brevard soccer team, came victory. It just seemed that we couldn't do anything wrong.

Long dresses, flowers, and jackets characterized the evening and the Homecoming dance. Everyone seemed to enjoy the music of the Micropolis and everyone seemed to be having a wonderful time.

Then came the crucial moment for which everyone had waited - the crowning of the 1972 Homecoming queen.

A quiet hush filled the room in mounting anticipation. Then came the announcement, "The 1972 Homecoming Queen is Mary Clare Simmons."

Suddenly the room was filled with clapping and yelling as Mary Clare was crowned. We extend our congratulations to her.

Midnight brought the end of another Homecoming for Brevard College - a Homecoming that will be long remembered.

Cast For "The Impossible Years" Chosen By BC Drama Department

The Brevard College Masquers and Drama Department are pleased to announce the fall production for the current season.

"The Impossible Years", a comedy in two acts by Bob Fisher and Arthur Marx, will be presented in Dunham Auditorium on Thursday and Friday, November 9 and 10 at 8:00 p. m.

This comedy, which is "a cascading comedy, sparkling with humor," centers around a psychiatrist who is writing a book about teen-agers and who has two teen daughters of his own constantly underfoot. The elder, 17 years old, has a menagerie in tow, including a verminous beatnik from the lower depths of Greenwich Village, the boy next door with an over-developed itch, the anemic lad who is a Peace Corps reject, etc. There is some question in the psychiatrist's household about the continence of the girls, but this is more or less cleared up when it is discovered that the elder has married in Maryland under an assumed name. The trouble is, she won't say who of the bunch is her husband, and this is enough to cause the harried psychiatrist some rather monstrous nightmares. The younger daughter is in the meantime boning up on Fanny Hill but concludes that it is tamer than her own household. Among others are the gym teacher in a version of Bermuda shorts and a hypochondriacal doctor who is against Medicine and therefore has his own built-in problem.

The cast is as follows:

Doctor Jack Kingsley
Mr. David Holcombe
Linda Kingsley -- Libby Reese
Alice Kingsley -- Gina Martin
Ricky Fleisher -- Tim Murphy
Richard Merrick
Charles Jennett
Mrs. Hammer -- Jan Augustine
Francine -- Libby McGimsey
Wally -- Tom Gisi
Dennis -- Tony Diciaccio
Andy -- Allan Lucas
Bartholomew Smuts
Garrett Hogan
Doctor Harold Fleisher
(to be cast)
Arnold Brecher
Charles Deberry
Director -- Rhuemma C. Miller
Technical Director
Wilbert Kimple
Student Director -- Lynn Garren
Prompter -- Sam Lester

Trustees Convene For Fall Meeting

The Trustees of Brevard College met on Thursday and Friday of last week on the college campus for their annual fall meeting according to a statement by Dr. Robert A. Davis, president of the college. Chairman, Allen H. Sims presided over the various sessions.

Mrs. Davis was hostess at a coffee in the President's home for wives of the Trustees from 10:00 A. M. until 11:00 A. M. on Friday.

The meeting began with dinner for the Trustees and their wives on Thursday evening at 7:00 o'clock in the A. G. Myers Dining Hall and was followed by a musical entertainment. Afterwards the Executive Committee met in the Beam Administration Building. On Friday morning from 8:45 until 10:00, there were committee meetings followed by the general meeting of the Board of Trustees at 10:30 o'clock. The session wound up with a luncheon meeting with the Trustees and their wives in Myers Dining Hall at 1:00 o'clock on Friday. At 4:30 on Friday, President Davis met with faculty members to discuss with them various measures acted upon at the Trustee meeting.

Class Of '72 Expresses Thanks

We would like to thank you for the best Homecoming we think this school has ever seen. The school spirit shown here this past weekend was very heart-warming, and brought back memories that will never be forgotten.

Believe us, you'll never realize how much one misses this college until he leaves.

Thanks again for everything.

Chiaroscuro Needs Contributions

Are you a budding young writer looking for a place to publish your work? Well, look no further.

The Brevard College literary magazine, Chiaroscuro is now accepting contributions from students.

The Chiaroscuro staff hopes to make this year's magazine the best edition ever. They urge all students to enter their art work, short stories, or poems to be considered for publication.

All entries must be the original work of the contributor and should be neatly written in ink or typed.

Contributions should be left in the office of Mrs. Beard, the Chiaroscuro staff advisor. Her office is No. 34 in Goodson-McLarty Classroom Building.
