

McGill Scholarship Open To B.C. Students

ATLANTA, GA. — The Ralph McGill Scholarship Fund offers scholarships for the 1979-80 school year of up to $1,500 each to students with southern backgrounds who have completed at least two years of college, Jack Tarver, chairman of the Scholarship Fund, said today.

Tarver said May 1st is the deadline for applications. He said a number of scholarships are awarded each year to students who have demonstrated a long-time interest in the news and editorial phase of newspapering.

Scholarships, he said, are limited to those young men and women whose roots lie in the south. Applicants must also convince the Awards Committee that they firmly intend to pursue a career in daily or weekly newspapering. Tarver said the Awards Committee wants to give scholarships to those who are likely to become leaders in the newspaper field.

Successful applicants will be required to maintain a "B" average in order to keep the scholarship.

A letter of not more than 500 words telling why the applicant wants a scholarship, together with photograph of the applicant, must accompany each application. Applicants also must have a letter of recommendation from a college authority.

Application blanks may be obtained from: The Ralph McGill Scholarship Fund; Box 4689; Atlanta, Georgia 30302.

Officers for the 1978-79 school year are Karen McCall, president, Cyndi Blalock, vice-president, Margaret Gosnell, secretary, David Roberts, treasurer Kim Pack, Campus Activity Chairman and Sandra Wilson, Representative to the Western Carolina Community Action Board. The provisional members, who are highly qualified freshmen admitted at the beginning of the year, are represented by Alicia Kinard. The campaign for regional president is being led by freshman Donna Harriger who can be spotted playing with Delta Pi airplanes, kazoos and other campaign materials.

Karen appeared to be very enthusiastic about PTK's future at Brevard and she hopes to accomplish a lot in the remainder of the year. Look for PTK to be working hard this semester.

Hamlet Review

The spirit of Shakespeare filled the Brevard College auditorium when the National Shakespeare Company presented Hamlet January 22, in Dunham auditorium. The performance was the first of ten programs scheduled for the Brevard College Life and Culture Series for the spring semester.

The cast, made up of young professional actors, captivated the audience with their genuine acting abilities and received a powerful response from the crowd. Although the play was quite long, the actors managed to keep the audience interested and received a well-deserved ovation at the end.

The performances of both K. C. Kizziah as Hamlet and Susanne Eqli as Ophelia displayed talent and versatility. The audience followed Hamlet through both his raging and romantic moments and they saw Ophelia as both charming and insane.

The production was staged by Mario Silette, formerly of the Metropolitan Opera. The company alternates between Hamlet and A Midsummer Night's Dream as they appear in more than 100 cities to audiences totaling more than 250,000 during their seven-month tour.

Brevard College Enrollment Sets Record

Nationally, while many colleges, especially private colleges, are experiencing enrollment declines, Brevard College continues to enroll record numbers of students. The national enrollment decline is due primarily to a significant drop in the population of college age students (18-21 year olds). The 18-21 year old population is projected to decline 18% between 1980-1990 according to the National Center for Education Statistics.

Brevard College has experienced a steady increase in enrollment since 1972, and this Spring semester represented a record enrollment of over 600 students. The previous record enrollment for the Spring semester was set in 1968. Dean McLendon, Dean of Admissions at Brevard College since 1972, projected a new record enrollment for Brevard College in the upcoming Fall semester, 1979, also.

Dean McLendon commented on the increasing enrollment by saying, "Brevard College's admissions program has been marketing oriented and carried out in such a way as to create a naturally high level of student demand for Brevard College. Brevard College has a proven record of excellence, and more and more students are seeking out only those colleges with a strong academic reputation and that are exceptionally strong in their area of academic interest."

Security Items

If you have a theft, it should be reported to a security officer. A form is completed with all available information. The time, location, items stolen are important of course. If you know the serial numbers, model numbers of further identifying marks, this too will aid in the investigation and recovery of stolen or missing possessions.

Damage to personal property, your vehicle, your room or contents should also be reported to security. All information you provide is kept confidential, and is a major element in the investigation of such instances.

Campus security officers have been employed to serve the entire college community. Each officer has considerable background in the various areas of security. Traffic control, vehicle registration, fire arm registration and storage, investigations, public relations and numerous other aspects of service and protection.

As director of security, I invite your inquiries, comments and cooperation in the overall protection of our college. For your protection, report suspicious person's, vehicles, activities that could lead to crime on this campus.

Campus Security is located in Room 107, McLarty Goodson Building and is open daily from 1 til 6 p.m.

If you need help, ask your security officer, he can assist or contact the necessary agencies.
