Tennis Teams Prepare For Competitive Season

By Susan Rogers

Brevard College's women's tennis team can look forward to a strong season, according to coach Deana Morrow. She added that the team has made a great deal of progress since practice began two weeks ago.

Presently, returning sophomore Judy McDonald is the leader of the team. Other returning team members are Mary Kieffer, Tracey McCarthy, and Joni Watters.

Unexpected progress has also been made by newcomers Kristin Iberger and Megan Johnson. Freshman Mara Klein is suffering from a foot injury but is expected to be a driving force on the team when she recovers.

Alternates are Andrea Whitlow and Anna Carlson.

According to Morrow, "The whole team looks good. They have a good attitude and are showing a lot of interest."

The team begins its season March 5 on the road against Anderson College.

The men's tennis team still does not have a coach. However, interested players have organized themselves and will soon begin a competitive schedule compiled by track coach Norm Witek.
