Many activities set for Parents' Weekend

Parents of Brevard College students will have an opportunity to get a taste of college life during the annual Parents' Weekend, Nov. 6-8.

Sponsored by the Student Government Association, the three-day event starts off Friday when parents are invited to attend classes with their son or daughter.

Residence Halls will have open house during the lunch hour. That afternoon the women's soccer team plays in the Region X tournament on the soccer field here. Friday night, parents may attend a theatrical production of the comedy, "The Foreigner," in the Barn Theatre.

President Billy Greer will welcome the parents at a special 8 a.m. breakfast in the A.G. Myers Dining Hall Saturday morning, followed by coffee and conversation with faculty and administration. From 10:30 to noon, faculty will be in their offices to talk with parents.

Also on Saturday BC will be hosting the fifth annual Patchwork Playgroup Craft Sale on the second floor of the Student
