BC Tornadoes win Classic

by Ricky Montgomery
Clarion Reporter

The Brevard College men's basketball team opened their season last Friday night, Nov. 11, winning the North Greenville Classic.

The men came away with a win over Limestone's Jayvee team as Darren Lawler led the Tornadoes in scoring with 23 points. Jason Williams added 21 points and Mike Cole had six rebounds to help the Tornadoes come away with a 86-74 win.

On November 12 the BC's men team faced Oplethorpe, winning by the score of 75-56.

Marcus Allen led the Tornadoes in scoring with 14 points. Harvey Cozart controlled the boards pulling down eight rebounds. On the defensive end of the court Ron Connor had six blocked shots.

"I think we looked good as a team and we played well together as a team," said captain Ron Connor.

Conference will be up for grabs

by Juan Kincaid
Sports Editor

The Western Carolinas Junior College Conference is up for grabs this year, according to Brevard College men's basketball Coach Doug Rogers.

"North Greenville, Anderson, Lees-McRae, Spartanburg Methodist and Brevard will make the conference one of the toughest in the country," Rogers said.

The conference is being expanded to seven teams with the new additions of Louisburg and Chowan Junior Colleges.

We're looking to improve in all areas of our game...I'm very optimistic about this year's team and conference," Rogers said. "Our running game will make us a very competitive team," Rogers continued.
