

Spring Life and Culture Series is jam-packed

Brevard College's concert, performance and lecture series offers a varied menu of special events to students.

This spring's Life and Culture Series begins with the annual Spring Convocation on Wednesday, Jan. 25, at 10:15 a.m. in Dunham Auditorium. Bishop Bevel Jones, who is also a BC Trustee, will be the guest speaker. The convocation is held at the beginning of each semester to officially mark the new term.

Those interested in world ecology will get a treat when Tim Knipe of the Cousteau Society comes to BC on Tuesday, Feb. 7, at 8:15 p.m. to show a presentation called "Rediscovery of the World." Under the leadership of legendary Jacques Cousteau, The Society is renowned for fascinating films and documentaries on nature's hidden treasures.

The first concert of the semester features the Verdehr Trio of Michigan State University on Thursday, Feb. 23, at 8:15 p.m. in Dunham Auditorium. The ensemble includes piano, violin and clarinet.

"Saturday Night Live" fans will get an earful on Tuesday, Feb. 23, at 8:15 p.m. in Dunham when author Doug Hill will recount the tumultuous history of SNL from its beginnings as an outlaw program produced by an unruly band of comic renegades through its evolution into a comedy institution. Hill's program is titled "A Backstage History of Saturday Night Live."

The annual Staley Distinguished Scholar Lecture series will be held on Tuesday and Wednesday, March 21 and 22 in Dunham Auditorium. The speaker and topic will be announced.

Jazz is becoming synonymous with Brevard these days, and the spring jazz concert by the Brevard College Jazz Ensemble will strengthen that connection. Steve Kelly's jazzists take the stage at Dunham on Thursday, March 23, at 8:15 p.m.

Next, Choral Director Mark Nabholz has his turn, at his Collegiate Singers present their annual spring concert on Tuesday, March 28, at 8:15 p.m. in Dunham.

Then, that weekend, Drama Professor Sam Cope will present the spring drama in the Barn Theatre, March 30 and 31; and April 1, 6, 7, and 8, at 8:15. The show will be announced.

The North Carolina Symphony comes to Brevard College's Boshamer Gymnasium for a pops concert on Wednesday, April 5, at 8:15 p.m. under the sponsorship of the Brevard Chamber Orchestra. Jackson Parkhurst, BCO founder, will come "home" to Brevard to conduct the Symphony.

Finally, Steve Kelly's Concert Band will give its concluding program of the year with the spring concert on Thursday, April 13, at 8:15 p.m. in Dunham.

Also, throughout the spring, the Brevard College Art Department shows various art films during the Tuesday night series, shown at 6:30 p.m. in the library.

Each Tuesday night at 6:30 art films are shown in the basement of Jones Library.

The film presentation is a part of the Life and Culture Series and include: Jan. 17 — the Greeks and the Romans, Jan. 24 — Nevelson in Process, Creativity with Bill Moyers; and Garbage: Another Way of Seeing.

Jan. 31 — Spinning Dying, Weaving; and Toys from the Fields.

Feb. 7 — Light of Experience, Feb. 14 — Hero as Artist, Feb. 21 — Worship of Nature, Feb. 28 — Georgia O'Keefe.

March 14 — Fallacies of Hope, March 21 — Grain in the Stone, March 28 — The World of Andrew Wyeth, and Art and the Prison Crisis.

April 4 — Garden and Grid, April 11 —

Arshile Gorky, and Art Conservator; April 18 — Cherokee Indian Basketry, and Face Jugs and Folk Pots.

The Life and Culture Series events are free to BC students. The Spring Drama production requires tickets, but they too are free, and may be picked up at the receptionist's desk in Beam Administration Building.

For the general public, the events are free, with the exception of the Spring Drama. Tickets may be purchased from the College receptionist. For more information, call 883-8292.

Japanese Culture Week is planned by BC

The College is planning its first Japanese Culture Week, Jan. 29 — Feb. 3, according to Dean of the College Harry Langley.

The special activity, which will include four videofilms narrated by Jane Seymour, will be held tentatively in Room 125 of McLarty-Goodson from 5:30 — 7 p.m. The films will provide "a comprehensive look at Japan of today as a direct descendant of the Japan of the shoguns and samurai."

The four films and dates include: Jan. 29 — "The Electronic Tribe;" Jan. 30 — "The Sword and the Chrysanthemum;" Jan. 31

— "The Legacy of the Shoguns;" Feb. 2 — "A Proper Place in the World."

The first film will be moderated by Dr. Ken Yamada, associate general secretary of the Board of Higher Education of the United Methodist Ministry. The last film will be moderated by Dr. Ken Nishimura, president of the East-West Foundation and currently with Oglethorpe University of Atlanta.

The four films will be free to BC students.

The week will conclude with a special dinner prepared by Japanese students on Feb. 3.
