

Residence Hall Assistants are integral part of campus life

by Kim Button
Clarion Editor

The Resident Hall Assistants (RHAs) are an active part of the BC Campus Life Staff. They are unique individuals who are both normal students living in the dorms and a part of the Campus Life Staff.

The RHAs' duties are to protect the safety of each individual in the dorm, to report problems within the dorm and on campus, be available to students who need to talk about their concerns, and making sure that life in the dorm is a pleasant experience.

The RHAs came back a week before the freshmen arrived to go through extensive training, which included first aid, conflict resolution, public safety, and their roles in intramurals and campus events.

The RHAs for the 1994-1995 school year are Nancy Genes, Carl Gaines, and Bryan Bradner, East Beam; Mark Casson, Twanya Mazyck, Christopher Ford, and Tanya Costa, West Beam; Lara Sweet, Heather Waitman, Jo Woodruff, and Kimberly Button, East Jones; Elizabeth Lynn, Megan Remick, and Jennifer Cook, West Jones; Daniel Bowman, Chris Hall, and Jon Ostendorf, Green Hall; Taylor Lutheran, Dustin Calhoun, Thomas Weber, and Ben Voegle, Taylor Hall.

BC welcomes new RDs

There have been additions to the Brevard College staff this year in the form of Resident Directors.

In Taylor Hall is John Dodson. He is from Columbus, Ga. Dodson is really not new here at BC, he was an RD here two years ago. Dodson stated about his position, "I enjoy it, it is the easy part of my job." He means that his position as an RD is only part time. He is also learning to be a teacher in the Wilderness Education program here at BC.

Heather Laughran is an RD in Jones Hall. Laughran is an alumni of BC. While at BC she was a resident assistant. She graduated in 1992 after spending five semesters here. When asked how different BC is now compared to then she replied, "The RAs have more responsibility, and visitation is longer." She also added, "My life at BC is complete. I have done a full circle, being part of the student body and now a member of the staff."

There are two more alumni RDs this year: Terry Owens, who is in East Beam, and Mike Louter in Green Hall. Louter was an RA while at BC as a student.

Linda Griffith has taken over the position that Sybil Dodson left when she retired last year as RD of Jones Hall. A member of the security staff, Onna Bouder, is the RD of the complex. This is where most of the men's cross country and track runners live.

According to Steve Woodson, Director of Public Safety, everything is going pretty well this year. He said, "We are very fortunate to have such qualified, caring people to oversee our residence halls."
