

Art & Entertainment:

2004 SGA Election
Results after a
Disjunctive Forum

Pergrine Falcons in the Pisgah:
No Longer
Endangered, but still Sensitive

Asheville's Favorite
Music Venue

Men's and Women's Basketball Falls Short

New Sculpture

By Nathan Jenkins

Is it a compass? Or maybe a sundial? Many of you have noticed the new sculpture in front of the art building. "Passages" is the name of the piece by Kyle Van Lusk. It is constructed from steel and earth. It fuses the natural grass with the man-made steel to signify the bond between man and Earth. SEE FULL ARTICLE page H 2

Brevard College Art
Department Faculty
Spring 2004
Exhibition

February 20 through
March 19th, 2004

By Katherine Lobdell

"The last show for the semester is the Senior Exhibition which displays all the hard work accomplished in the last semester for the senior art majors."

Exhibiting their art now in the SIMMs art building, are professors Tim Murray, Mollie Doctrow, Dixon Brady, Bill Byers, and Joe Pumphrey. SEE FULL ARTICLE page H3

Brevard College
Theater Department
Announcements

By Katherine Lobdell
Coming to the Porter Center for the performing arts is the musical Big River by Roger Miller.

And Southeast Asian Puppetry show is coming to the Morrison Playhouse via Brevard College senior, Lindsey Shields.

SEE FULL ARTICLE page H2

Top Stories

Features

Editorials

Campus News

Community News

Environmental News

Sports News

Arts &

Entertainment

Letters to the Editor

Staff

The Clarion is published by and for the students at Brevard College. Letters to the editor should be emailed to Heather Ochse, Editor.