Put it away!

Feet are sleazy enough. There's no need to let yours rot this Halloween!

Ladies: I know costume time is coming, so I'm sure we'll be seeing plenty of the above with your "skanky angel" costumes. The least you can do is file some calluses. Buy some that fit. No seeping foot fat!

Gentlemen: I'll admit, the rough-neck look is pretty hot. However, it stops at your feet. Clip those talons! Nothing's nastier than getting lacerated by your man in bed. And please clean out some of that toenail dirt.
