

Lady Tornados fall in home opener

by Amethyst Green
Staff Writer

The Lady Tornados Basketball team fell to Bryan College in their season opener on Wednesday evening. The team started out strong in front of a large home crowd, but was over taken by Bryan College in the second half. The final score was Brevard 53, Bryan 65.

The game started at 6 p.m. and the stands were full of people ready to cheer on BC. Although they played very hard their efforts were put to waste.

Samantha Winn, #11, led the team with a total of 13 points, followed by Holly Krogman, (#40), with 10 points, Lindsey Morgan, (#15), with 8 points, and Millie Wharton, (#5), with 7 points. Also, Megan Russell, (#12), had 6 assists, and Jessica Whitmire shot 100% from the free throw line.

Holly Krogman wrestles for possession of the ball. photo by John Billingsley

Brevard shot 28.6% from the three point line in the first half and in the second half they shot 37.5%. The team's total field goal percentage for the first half was 46.4% and the second half they shot only 34.6%. Their first half free throw percentage was 66.7% and the second half they shot 40.0%. For the game they shot 40.7% for field goals, 33.3% for 3 point shots, and 50.0% for free throws.

The team got off to a rocky start, but they didn't lose by much. The Lady Tornados will be traveling for their next few games. Their next home game is Nov. 21 at 6 p.m. where they will play Virginia Intermont College.

Upcoming Games:

- Nov. 17 at Carson Newman
- Nov. 18 vs Lenior Rhyne
(at CNC)
- Nov. 21 vs Virginia Intermont
- Nov. 25 vs Tenn. Wesleyan
- Nov. 28 at LMU
- Nov. 30 at Mars Hill
- Dec. 2 at Lenior Rhyne
- Dec. 5 vs LMU
- Dec. 9 vs Lees McRae

Motion to impeach SGA President withdrawn

by Adam Beeson
Editor in Chief

A written motion to impeach Student Government Association (SGA) President Aaron Motley was recalled shortly before the scheduled SGA joint session meeting on Wednesday. The proposal was the second written motion calling for the impeachment of Motley this semester.

On Tuesday, Nov. 14, Josh Rosen, Chief Justice of the Judicial Board, announced that he had received a written motion calling for impeachment.

Rosen said that SGA would hold a special Joint Session on Wednesday at 8:30 p.m., in which the accusatory legislator, under Article

6 of the SGA Constitution, would formally make the motion.

Article 6, the Impeachment Article, says that "the official motion (for impeachment) must be made during a special Joint Session called by the Chief Justice. The motion must include the identification of the Executive Officer accused, along with a brief explanation of the reasons for the charges."

At 6:56 p.m. on Wednesday, Rosen sent a campus-wide e-mail announcing that the motion had been withdrawn.

"As I announced in my e-mail of November 15, 2006, I have received a written motion," Rosen said. "The person who submitted the motion has requested that it not be brought forward at this time. Therefore the special session for tonight is cancelled. It is not appropriate or necessary to discuss the matter."

Rosen then read the e-mail at a regularly scheduled SGA Senate Meeting at 7:30 p.m., and the motion was no longer discussed.

This was the second written motion for impeachment filed to Rosen this semester.

On Aug. 30, Christopher Dimond, member of the House of Club Representatives, made a written and verbal motion to impeach Motley on grounds that he acted in violation of college policy. After a special Joint Session to con-

-see SGA page 2

What's Inside?

- Classifieds.....12
- False Ad.....8
- Horoscope.....7
- Huntin' & Killin'...11
- Matt's Take.....4
- Movie Review.....7
- Opinion.....3
- Put it Away.....5
- Sports.....11