Volleyball Tournament takes off this weekend

by Amethyst Green
Sports Editor

The Volleyball Co-ed Tournament will be this weekend Saturday, March 24th and will start at 8:30 a.m. There will also be a play-offs and a final game.

In pool play the format is two games with 25 points, win by two, no cap, and with a 40 minute time limit. Also, each team will play round robin in their pool. Between matches there will be a 4 minute warm-up. Anytime we are ahead the matches will move up.

If you have any questions regarding the tournament you can contact Coach Skeffington and/or Jessica Whitmire. The tournament directors will be Jessica Whitmire, Brenda Skeffington, and myself.

The games will be played at the Transylvania Rec Center, Boshamer Gym, and the auxiliary gym (Brevard College). There are play-offs that begin at 4 p.m. It goes in order quarterfinals and semi-finals at 5 p.m., and then finals at 6 p.m.

There will be 4 pools and pools A and C will play at Brevard College, and the pools B and D will play at the Transylvania Rec Center. Some of our very own will be participating in the tournament so come out and watch. It will be very interesting and fun to come out and enjoy the spectacle.

BC Softball takes a fall

by Amethyst Green
Sports Editor

In game one against Carson-Newman, Brevard took a fall, losing 8-0. The game had been postponed from Saturday, March 17th to Monday March 19th. The teams played 5 innings.

Brevard had 4 errors and gave up 13 hits. Rachel Howard collected three strike-outs for BC in the 4 innings she pitched, but she will pick up the loss. Kristina Clayton and Katie Brown had a good day offensively going 1-2.

For Carson-Newman College, Katie Speaks and Hillary Hammond both had a perfect day going 3-3. Pitcher Stephanie Templeton pitched all 5 innings only giving up 2 hits, and she also had 6 strikeouts against 18 batters.

In game two against Carson-Newman, BC still came short losing 9-1 after a 4 run homerun. Stephanie Templeton had the homerun for the Eagles. This just proved to be too significant for the Tornados. Rachel Howard will record the loss; Jessie Armstrong will record the win for the Eagles.

They are scheduled to play at home again on March 28th at 2:00 against Milligan College. Their next game is away at Catawba College, March 22nd, at 2:00 p.m.

The Clarion wishes the girls a safe trip and good luck with the rest of their season!
