

American Heroes

The NCAA tournament is no place for the weak and feeble. Or at least we thought, until you, all 155 pounds of you, shot your tiny Davidson College squad into the Elite Eight. Not only was your team the Cinderella story of the NCAA tournament, but you also have the same frame and amount of facial hair as the actual Cinderella. For defying the odds and being the first person ever to be named Regional MVP despite not hitting puberty yet, The Clarion salutes you, Stephen Curry, a true American Hero!
