

Humanities Senior Projects

Tuesday April 29th

Jenn Epley

“Waldensianism and Women”

Curtis Schwartz

“Christianity and Creation: A Biblical Mandate to Care, Love, Protect, and Serve Creation”

Michael Spradlin

“The Changing Faces of Religion: A History of Christian Voting in America 1925-2008”

Zack Harding

“You Get One Shot at This”

Thursday May 1st

Stephanie McCall

“Claiming our Wings by Clipping our Wings”

David Ulloa

“A Screen Play: External Use Only”

Chris Hiatt

St. Augustine’s Christian Love and Happiness.

Scopes “Monkey” Trial Reenactment Evolutionism & Creationism

Where: Porter Center Amphitheatre

When: Tuesday, May 6th @ 6 p.m.

Other: FREE Food & Drink along with grills that you can bring your own food to cook on

Sponsored by Pastimes History Club & BC Debate Society

Faculty Departures

by Risa Dimond
Managing Editor

There are several faculty members who are either retiring or leaving on sabbatical, for the 2008/09 school year.

Dr. Robert White, from the theatre department, will be retiring in May 2008. Dr. Carroll Brooks, Associate Professor of Chemistry and Environmental Studies, Dr.

Janie Sue Brooks, Associate Professor of Biology, and Dr. Scott Sheffield, Associate Professor of History and coordinator of History Major, will be on sabbatical for the full year. Associate Professor Clyde Carter will be starting his sabbatical next spring.

There are also several faculty members leaving Brevard College but the information could not be found by press time.

7 Ways Not To Prepare For Exams

By Mandi Pearson
Staff Writer

- 1:00-3:00pm- Take a nap
- 3:00-6:00pm- Take numerous shots of Tequila
- 6:00-10:00pm- Play World of Warcraft
- 10:00pm-11:00pm- Climb on top of the gym and jump off
- 11:00pm-4:00am - Spend hours in the hospital getting x-rays
- 4:00am-6:00am- Eat large amounts of junk food while on vicatin
- 6:00am-9:00am- sleep through your exam