Brevard battled both the Mountain Lions and the weather on Tuesday afternoon, falling to Young Harris, 3-0. Brittany Fowler posted two hits and Brittany Tucker and Maddie Fletcher each a double in the contest.

Game One: Young Harris 3, Brevard 0

In the bottom of the first, Young Harris struck against Clemens as Emily Wilson launched a 0-1 pitch over the centerfield fence with one out in the frame to give the Mountain Lions an early lead.

In the top of the third, the lady Tornados threatened Young Harris as Brittany Jones and Fowler reached on back-to-back one-out singles. Unfortunately for Brevard, YHC was able to escape the inning with a double play to end the inning and keep the score intact.

Young Harris College added their second run in the bottom of the fourth inning as Kayla Jones led off the inning with a home run over the left centerfield fence. The Mountain Lions gave the Brevard College Tornados a scare as they put runners on first and second in the inning with two outs. Fortunately, Clemens retired the side to keep the 2-0 score intact midway through the game.

With runners in scoring position in both the fifth and the sixth inning, Fletcher reached a one-out double up the middle, while Tucker led off the sixth inning with a double to straightaway centerfield. However, the Tornados were unable to come back and pace past the Mountain Lion's lead in the contest.

Young Harris added the final run in the bottom of the fifth as Wilson brought in Sydnee Weaver with a sacrifice fly to centerfield.

Game Two: Brevard 3, Young Harris 0 (Suspended in 2nd inning)

The second game was opened with three runs in the top of the first for the lady Tornados, but a lightning delay and the imminent darkness ended the afternoon between the Tornados and the Mountain Lions, with the second game and statistics not counting toward either team's schedule.

Brevard remains on the road, but returns to South Atlantic Conference play as the Tornados travel to Hickory, N.C. today, to take on Lenoir-Rhyne University. First pitch in the doubleheader between the Tornados and the Bears at the LRU Softball Field is set for 1 p.m. Let's go ladies!

Men's golf team places 10th in intercollegiate tournament

The Brevard College men's golf team completed the two round Carolina Sands Intercollegiate tournament last Sunday afternoon at the Carolina Sands Golf Club. The tournament was shortened by rain as the Tornados finished the final round with a 10th place result, third among SAC schools who took on the course.

Kim Koivu, one of the leaders for the Tornados, finished the second round with the lowest score for the Tornados, ending the event with a 71 on the final day to pace the Tornados' efforts forward.

T.J. Hoard and Diego Ortiz matched each other in the second round with a score of 76. Hoard finished the tournament with a final tally of 150 on the event, sitting in a tie for 38th overall at the Carolina Sands Golf Club. Ortiz finished with a 153 overall on the tournament, tying for 48th overall.

Michael Stamper and Thomas Rennie both recorded matching final round scores of 80 to round out the group in the tournament. Stamper tied for 52nd overall with a two-round total of 154. Rennie finished 65th overall in the tournament, finishing with a 158 to end the day for the Tornados.

Brevard returns to the golf course at home, as the Tornados host the Aramark Collegiate Invitational on April 9-10. Come out and support your Tornados!

Brevard baseball in full swing

Brevard Baseball has had an action-packed week playing games and playing them well. They took their tough schedule and showed what it what it means to be a Tornado.

On Friday March 30, the Tornados were up against the Railsplitters of Lincoln Memorial, and the Tornados took a demanding 6-2 victory over LMU. The next day they were faced against LMU for a double header where they battled twice more, and again they were victorious, winning 12-8 in the first game and dominating the high scoring next game 21-16.

In the Tornados' most recent game they were up against the Gardner-Webb Bulldogs on the road in Boiling Springs. This was a close game, but the Tornados pulled through late in the game to take a 8-6 victory and left the Bulldogs pouting.

After the past four victories, this puts the Tornados just below .500 on the season at 19-20. They are currently fifth in the conference behind Tusculum(32-5), Catawba(30-8), Wingate(26-16), and barley behind Carson-Newman(20-20).

Your Tornados will be back in action this afternoon at 3 against Wingate. Tomorrow they play a double-header against Wingate. The first game starts at noon and then at 3P.M. GO OUT AND SUPPORT YOUR TORNADOES!!!
