“First, I would like to thank Coach Sheedy for his hard work, dedication and success during his time here as head coach,” BC athletic director Juan Mascaro said Thursday to the news that Brian Sheedy is leaving the cycling team to pursue other dreams.

According to Mascaro, Sheedy plans to stay in the area and help out with the BC cycling team as much as possible. “I want to wish him the best in his new endeavors,” Mascaro said.

Assistant coach Brad Perley will step in as head coach for the cycling team. “I look forward to the program’s continuing success under Brad’s leadership,” Mascaro said.
