

METROPOLITAN COMMUNITY CHURCH

The triangle area now has its own MCC Study Group. The group began in February and became affiliated as a Study Group last April. The group's activities so far include weekly discussion groups and worship services. Each Sunday the group meets at 3 PM at the Presbyterian Student Center, 2700 Horne St., in Raleigh. Rides are available for people in the Chapel Hill area by calling Jay or Wendell at 929-8843. The first Wednesday of each month is "Forum Night." So far topics for forums have included North Carolina laws and psychological aspects of being gay. The meetings on the 1st, 3rd and 4th Wednesdays are held in Raleigh at 900 W. Morgan Street, at the home of Rev. Willie White, the pastor for the church. Meetings on the 2nd Wednesday are held in Carrboro.

Future possible plans for MCC include visits to state and federal prisons (authorization has just been given for this project from the national office of MCC in Los Angeles); organizing a Consciousness-raising group, and investigating the possibility of a gay VD clinic.

The MCC will host an open dinner on the Sunday after Thanksgiving (November 28) at 4:15 after the worship service. All people interested in MCC are encouraged to attend.

NEXT CGA MEETING

It's movie time at the next CGA meeting, Monday night, Nov. 15, at 7:30 PM in room 205, Carolina Union. We'll be screening the newest acquisition by the UNC Psychology Department, "Some of Our Best Friends Are . . ." It's supposed to be a documentary and I've heard it is very well done. But let's judge for ourselves. Hope we'll see you there !!!
