

"THE ESSENCE OF YOUR MEMORY"

Lying awake at night
I think only of you
Visions of a midnight romance
Stir excitedly in my mind.

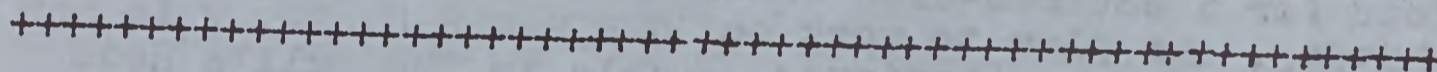

Your face glows, like a gentle rose
Awakening in the misty morning
Growing more beautiful each moment
As you lay in the sunshine.

My heart, flaming with passion
Now offers a sensuous love to you
Take it, and make it a part of you
To be a part of me.

Each day, the essence of your memory
Keeps me going, filling each moment
With happiness, with contentment
Of knowing that you're near.

But, even if I go each day
Without knowing if you care
And without your arms around me,
The essence of your memory keeps me going.

TUESDAY NIGHT SOCIALS

Every Tuesday night starting at 9 o'clock at the Friends Meeting House, Raleigh Rd., the CGA holds an informal social gathering for area residents.

The socials began last year when people who had gotten together for C_R groups wanted to stay longer just to sit back and talk. Now for every Tuesday for over a year we have met there. It is a pleasing alternative. Come by next Tuesday.
