CGA Sponsors Prom

The Carolina Gay Association is sponsoring its first annual Spring Prom on Saturday, April 12, at the Community Church from 9 pm to 1 am.

"We'll have a wide variety of music, from Beach to New Wave. People can come dressed up or not, as they choose," said an organizer.

"Unlike other proms, you do not have to have a date to come."

Non-alcoholic and alcoholic beverages will be served, as well as bread and cheese.

There will be a $1 suggested donation at the door.

Gay AA Meets Thursdays

The Lambda Alcoholics Anonymous holds weekly meetings on Thursdays at 8 pm. The newly formed group meets at the Newman Catholic Center on pittsboro St. in Chapel Hill.

One meeting each month is open to AA non-members. Plans are also being made for a gay Al-Anon.

"The demand for a gay Alcoholics Anonymous is incredible," a spokesperson said. "It is the only one of its kind in North Carolina."

"It is a needed part of the community because drinking to an alcoholic is a life or death matter."

For more information, call in Durham, 688-6785; and in Chapel Hill, 967-6414 or 967-5193.

"Take Back The Night" Set

There will be a 'Take Back the Night' march on April 18 to make the Chapel Hill-Carrboro community aware of nighttime sexual crimes and harassment.

The march will meet at 9:30 pm in front of the Franklin Street Post Office, and begin at 10 pm.

At 11 pm, there will be a rally at Carr Mill Mall with Alix Dobkin.

At 3 pm, workshops start at the Orange County Women's Center on topics related to sexual crimes and harassment.

For information, call 967-RAPE.
