Dear friends,

Christopher's, Bluberry Hill, The Electric Company, the Pegasus . . . it's been a long time since gay people in Chapel Hill have had a place of their own to relax, have a drink, and meet friends. The opening of The Loft last year helped provide one such opportunity; we want to invite you to join us in another.

Many of you have already been out to Stephen's, after all, the supper club and cafe in the Village Plaza on Elliott Road. In just a few months, it's gained a reputation as a comfortable place to go for dinner, drinks, or a show. And whether at Barbara Cock's gala opening or during the zany visits of Gary Herb and Johnny Potato, we've taken our seats alongside the rest of Chapel Hill to enjoy the relaxed atmosphere and the wonderful people.

Now we'd like you to join us in a new venture--Mondays at Stephen's. Starting July 5, CGA will sponsor a party for gay folks and their friends every Monday in the main clubroom. There will be live music at the piano, drink specials from the bar, and a variety of light meals from the cafe. We'll start at nine o'clock and keep going till we've had enough. For more information call CGA at 962-4401 or Stephen at 929-0217.

At last, our corner of the Southern Part of Heaven has what we deserve . . .

Spread the word - and let's make Monday nights the best they've ever been in Chapel Hill! It'll be our pleasure to do our part! See you soon -
