H O M O F I L E

- Martina Navratilova claims she is NOT dating k.d. lang.
  - John Johnson, The LAMBDA editor, has pulled his application to the Air Force.
  - Barry Goldwater, godfather of conservative politics, supports his gay grandson and lesbian grandniece.
  - Two non-IV drug using, non-hemophilic lesbians who have never slept with men have contracted HIV.
  - After Rosie O'Donnell said, "The only person who has anything to say about what happens to my body is me and Michelle Pfeiffer," her spokesperson said, "She's not a ... She was relating to her audience." Yeah, right.
  - Book of Love singer Susan Ottaviano has come out and comic Margaret Cho "has sex so infrequently that she doesn't even consider terms like straight, gay or bi to be applicable to her."
  - Death Praxis (i.e., Ikue Mori and Tenko) has put out a new album. Get their CD from Nonsequitur at P.O. Box 344, Albuguerque, NM 87103.
  - Being "out" has only helped British actor Sir Ian McKellen. You may see him in As the Band Played On and The Ballad of Little Jo.
  - The city of San Antonio elected Braulio Carabajal Veloz of the national Latino Lesbian and Gay Organization board to the San Antonio Community Action Advisory Board.
  - The head of Ohio State University has decided against opening its family housing complex to gay and lesbian student couples.
  - Ron Lambe, the first openly gay candidate to run for Asheville City Council, lost the Sept. 21 primary elections.
  - Ted Danzen claims to be dating Whoopi Goldberg. Whoopi told The Advocate few years ago she is a "non-practicing lesbian." Maybe Ted is a "non-practicing faggot."
- compiled from The Advocate, Community Connections, Deneuve, and Out.
