

Horoscopes

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec.21)— Your sign is high, but recently you have been feeling as though you are swimming against the tide. Take heart; with patience and some of your Sagittarian charm, you will soon regain control of the situation. Meanwhile, be careful not to offend others.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19)— Too much is going on! Goats need to stop overcommitting and cut back on their commitments in order to maintain their sanity. Take an evening off to sit back and drink some hot chocolate. Short distance relationship involved with Capricorn individual.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18)— Peace and happiness will come to you around the 7th of the month. You will soon eat a large meal surrounded by many friends. Pisces involved.

Pisces (Feb. 19-March 20)— Communication, sensual appeal are highlighted. Short trip with Virgo involved. Resist the temptation to pick easy answer to problems.

Aries (March 21-April 19)— The first part of this semester has been exhausting! But remember, Aries are known for their resilience and fortitude. You'll make it! Meanwhile, use a Saturday to go somewhere with a good friend—you never know what it could lead to.

Taurus (April 20-May 20)— Although quiet on the outside, Taurus are headstrong and great at taking charge. Your quiet leadership style has been moving mountains—in your personal life and in your business. Despite relationship problems, the rest of this semester brings you great happiness, particularly with Cancer natives.

Gemini (May 21-June 20)— Your practical nature has allowed you to get a lot accomplished this semester. But do not neglect your personal life. This month is the time for change for Gemini—so go ahead and make that first move. Esse quam videre!

Cancer (June 21-July 22)— Stressed? It's your nature. But it's also your nature to accomplish great things—when you're not worried about the details. Let friends help you out. Venus is in your sign; what seemed impossible in September is now a relationship reality—go for it!

Leo (July 23-Aug.22)— Quiet by nature, this semester has been relatively good for the Leo. Enjoy the tranquillity and focus on family, home, and friends. Cancer native involved.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22)— Issue of money and power will be resolved shortly. What was once confusing will be clarified by mid-December. Short trip involved, could lead to something more serious. Be careful of menage-a-trois—they may be fun, but the Virgo will always get hurt.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 22)— The balance may be your sign, but this semester has been full of highs and lows. Though there may be some rough times in November, by the time exams are done, things will be looking up. Hang in there. Meantime, take care of yourself—play guitar, write, talk to friends. The greatest clarity can be found in the simplest pleasures.

Scorpio (Oct. 23-Nov. 21)— This semester has been a time of change and turmoil—but not all bad. Keep your head high; the answers you are searching for will come. Meanwhile, take initiative to create change in your own life—make that phone call, buy those lawn chairs, drive the extra mile. It'll be worth it.
