Ask A Flamer: Jesse &amp; David

BY JESSE "THE QUEEN B" DAVIDSON WITH HELP FROM DAVID "THE LIL' B" SEYMOUR

Dear Flamer,

What do you think of the new fall fashion line from the top name brands? What fashions were glad to see come and which ones were you glad to see go? Also, I am new into the club scene, so what is the appropriate attire?

—Clueless in Carmichael

Dear Clueless,

J: First of all, I was personally glad to see those ugly ass midget Capri pants go. People were wondering around like they were in that big flood in eastern North Carolina last year.

D: Please, you're just bitter that those girls had better assets than that big-ass ghetto booty of yours Ms. Thing.

J: I am not Noah, and do not think God was planning on letting it rain in Chapel Hill for 40 days and 40 nights, so all those girls were just walking around looking like they were trying to squeeze their asses into some pants they wore when they were in kindergarten. Kind of like you trying to squeeze into a pair of 32's at j-Crew.

D: Like you know something about the Bible, haven't you read Leviticus trick?

Anyway, as for clubbing, please avoid the pacifiers and glow sticks, okay? E was like so 1991.

J: Also, A-F should never be worn to a club unless you are going to Player's or something. And blue jeans are a definite no no.

Dear Flamer,

I have always taken great pride in my buff physique and cut body, but recently I've noticed that I also like to touch other men's cut bodies. But I really like girls. I swear! Do you think my girlfriend has figured out my dirty secret? Where can I turn to for some sweet love?

—Macho in Mangum

Dear Macho Macho Man,

J: Well if you really like touching male bodies and are looking for some sweet love, you can come on over to my dorm room anytime.

D: Oh no, I am mad at that! Nevermind that desperate ho, she's still bitter cause someone dropped a house on her sister. All I have to say is what's up with the little guy? Any movement down there sailor? If there is then don't be trifling and come on out - girls are squishy anyway.

J: Anyway, seriously, if you really are having concerns or need to talk you can come to a LGBT rap session on Mondays at 5:30 in the Center for Healthy Students inside the SRC. It is confidential and can be free to talk without any concern about others finding out until you figure it out on you own.

Dear Flamer,

I think my boyfriend (also my roommate) is cheating on me, but I can't be sure. He comes home smelling like other men, and he avoids my gaze when I try to probe his soul. Please help me find out if he's just being mysterious or if he's being unfaithful. Maybe your gay brain is better at figuring these things out.

—Suspicious in Stacy.

My dear suspicious friend,

J: Well Honey, if you want to know you need to start looking for some warning signs. Make sure that your condom supply is not dwindling.
