

THE SEATMEAN

VOL. I

LOUISBURG COLLEGE, MARCH, 1930

NO. 3

COMMENCEMENT PROGRAMME

Dr. E. C. Brooks, President of North Carolina State College of Raleigh, has been secured to deliver the commencement address at Louisburg College, Wednesday, May 21, according to announcement made today from the office of President C. C. Alexander. Before becoming the Head of State College Dr. Brooks, who is an outstanding educator in the South, had held the professorship of Education at Duke University and served for a number of years as State Superintendent of Education.

The Commencement program at Louisburg College includes the following features:

Alumnae Banquet, Saturday evening, May 17.

Commencement sermon, by Dr. W. W. Peele, 11:00 A. M., Sunday, May 18.

Annual concert, 8:00 P. M., Monday May 19.

School of Expression Play, 8:00 P. M., Tuesday, May 20.

Graduating exercises, 10:00 A. M., Wednesday, May 21.

MRS. LAWSON, GUEST AT COLLEGE

Mrs. Lawson, mother of Miss Lawson, Department of Dramatic Art, furnished the college and the town of Louisburg much pleasure and interest through her visit to her daughter. She spoke in a most interesting fashion to the Y. W. C. A. of her missionary life in India. She delivered an address at the Wednesday Evening prayer-meeting and had complete charge of religious services at the Baptist church last Sunday evening. Her departure from our college circle was deeply regretted.

A WASHINGTON PARTY

The members of the Theta Tau Epsilon Sorority were delightfully entertained Saturday evening, February 22. The hostess of the evening were Misses Estelle Calhoun, Lillian Newton and Marie Wellons. The sponsor, Miss Zeigler and the honorary members, Mrs. A. W. Mohn, and Misses Klein and Fontanna were present. Progressive Rook was played, Miss Hazel Wooley winning the highest score was presented with a dainty box of candy. Refreshments were served, carrying out the color scheme of the evening.

SIGMA IOTA CHI STUNT NIGHT

February 1st, Misses Eva James Elliott, Dorothy Stallings, Eulalia Larden, and Betty Mohn were hostesses to the Sigma Iota Chi Sorority at a Cup Party in Miss Terry's Studio. The sorority was entertained by stunts performed by two groups within the sorority. The first group was Betty Mohn, Cora Scott, Margaret Poyner, Eva James Elliott, and Bernadette Woodlief. Their stunts consisted of impersonations, songs, and an orchestra. Eva James Elliott impersonated Miss Zeigler by skating, very thoughtfully. Betty Mohn posed as Mrs. Mohn directing the Glee Club. Cora Scott hopped in as Gwendolyn Baugham, and Bernadette Woodlief played a jazz piece as classically as Mary Cranmer ever could have played it. The Sympathy Orchestra was the next feature—this orchestra proved to be quite a rival to Paul Whitman's. Then the five girls did a "Gym Dance" which was following by clogging by "Baby Poyner" and one act in true vaudeville style—namely Bernadette Woodlief sang "That's You Baby." The second group of girls was Dorothy Stallings, Mary Cranmer, Cora Weston, Marion Watson, and Marion Bishop. They enacted the "The Wedding of the Painted Doll", Mary Cranmer being the blushing doll, Cora Weston the "Preacherman", Marion Watson the groom and Dorothy Stallings and Marion Bishop the bridesmaids. Marion Watson, Mary Cranmer and Dorothy Stallings then portrayed "The Gay Cabellero". Mary Cranmer was the "Senorita", Dorothy Stallings was the husband, and Marion Watson starred as the Gay Cabellero. The last act was "Half and Half" by Cora Weston and Dorothy Stallings; this was another "Gym Dance."

The girls then went to the Chapter Room where delicious refreshments of hot chocolate and nut and cheese sandwiches were served.

Guests of the evening were Mrs. A. W. Mohn, sponsor, Miss Isabelle Zeigler, Miss Myra Yancey, honorary members, and Mary Waring.

TEACHER'S "AT HOME"

The teachers of Louisburg College were "at home" to the ladies of Louisburg on Tuesday February 4th from three-thirty to five o'clock. The hostesses were Mrs. Mohn and Misses Klein, Zeigler and Bizzell.

A delicious salad course was served.

ULTIMATUM!

The last payment of annual fees is due by March 15. "The Oak" will be ready for distribution near the first of May but no copies will be given out until all bills are paid. Before you can receive an annual you must have a receipt from the registrar that your publication fee has been paid in full, as well as a receipt from the business manager of the annual for your class fees. Please make your plans accordingly and if your dues are not paid see me as soon as possible.

"Some pay their dues ahead of time,

Some pay their dues behind time,
Some never do,

What do you do?"

Mildred Ramsey,
Bus. Mgr., "The Oak."

PRES. ALEXANDER HONORED

Announcement has just been received that President C. C. Alexander of Louisburg College has been elected as an alumnus member of North Carolina Beta chapter of Phi Beta Kappa scholarship Fraternity at Duke University. Election to Phi Beta Kappa is considered one of the highest honors in the academic field. The election of Mr. Alexander was in line with the policy of Beta Chapter to select from time to time certain alumni who have achieved distinguished service. In addition to Phi Beta Kappa President Alexander holds membership in Sigma Upsilon National literary fraternity; Tau Kappa Alpha, national debating fraternity; and Sigma Chi, social fraternity.

GUESTS OF COLLEGE ENTERTAINED BY MRS. MOHN

Mrs. A. W. Mohn entertained on St. Valentine's Evening in honor of Mrs. D. B. Lawson, Mrs. Chandler and Mrs. Horton, guests at the College. Elaborate refreshments of Valentine design consisting of a fruit cock-tail, delicious chicken salad course, followed by a nesselrode creme au coeur were served. Other guests of the evening were Miss Crenshaw, Miss Lawson and Miss Zeigler.

The following girls were initiated into full membership of Sigma Iota Chi: Misses Marion Bishop, Annie Lee Cutchin, Cora Scott, Aliene Swinson, Miriam Whedbee and Bernadette Woodlief.