

Whispering Oak

The Newspaper of the Students

Vol. I

April 26, 1940

No. 13

DR. KEAN SPEAKS TO STUDENT BODY

On Thursday morning, April 25, Dr. Arnold W. G. Kean spoke before the faculty and student body of Louisburg College. His lecture was on the Scandanavian affair and the ways in which these countries are meeting the present crisis. Having lived and traveled in these countries extensively, Dr. Kean is an authority on this phase of world affairs. Until the recent Scandanavian development, he was the American correspondent of the Social-Demokeaten, the organ of the Danish Government.

A graduate of Cambridge University and of the Harvard School of Law, which he attended by means of a commonwealth fellowship fund of $6,000, Dr. Kean accepted a position on the law teaching staff of Cambridge. During a visit in Denmark, he accepted the position he held until recently.

Unfortunately, Dr. Kean's coming was a comparative secret and many students and faculty missed his lecture.

Mrs. Kean, who accompanied him, stole the hearts of many of the students. Her modest, charming, somewhat shy air completely overcame those with whom she came in contact.

May Day (Continued)

Martha Windley, with Lloyd Sheep.
Margaret Simmons with Billy Gossard.
Kathleen Winborne with John Belcher.
Lavonne Matthews with Billy Clifton.
Jean Senecal with Bobby Waters.
Elen Moore with George Stearns.
Moris Morgan with Bill McArtan.
Katherine Gillis with Borden McClaes.
Katherine Gunter with Joe Comer.

MAY DAY AND HOMECOMING PROGRAM

Saturday, May 4, is May Day and Homecoming in one big, glorious occasion. The program, as planned, will follow this general outline:

At one-thirty o'clock on Saturday, May 4, on the college athletic field, there will be a baseball game between members of the class of 1935 and a college team.

The May Day fete will be held at four-thirty o'clock on the northwest campus which is used as an amphitheatre.

At six-thirty o'clock class dinners will be held in the college dining hall. Senator D. B. Fearling, President of the Roanoke Island Historical Association, has been invited as guest speaker of the evening.

From nine to eleven o'clock in the evening the college will be hosts to students and visiting Alumni at a dance.

On Sunday morning, May 5, at eleven o'clock there will be a special sermon at the Louisburg Methodist Church. Dr. Walter Patten, President of the College, will fill the pulpit at the request of the alumni.

An Alumni Dinner will be served at one o'clock in the college dining hall.

The theme for May Day centers around an adaptation of Mother Goose Stories by Kathleen Turner and Marguerite Wills. It is under the direction of Miss Ruth Rogers.

The May Court and escorts are as follows:

Juanita Hurley (Queen), escorted by Pete Page.
Alice Cahill (Maid of Honor) escorted by Lester Stallings.