

MAY DAY (Continued from p. 1)
 Hilda Barnes with Willis Marshall.
 Mae Edla Asbell with Emerson Asbell
 Ruby G. Massenberg with Charles Gates.

The main characters in the pageant are as follows: Mother Goose Frances Brown; Simple Simon, Cliff Morris; The Pieman, Ed Comer; Red Riding Hood, Doris Munford; Bo Peep Rebecca Midgette; Boy Blue, Richard Auger; Tom, Tom, the Piper's Son, Dan Bright Robertson; King Cole, A. B. Allen; Queen of Hearts, Judy Kannon; Maid of Hearts, Mary Allsbrook; Maid of Blackbird Pie, Inez Lupton; Jester, Clyde Stallings; Knave of Hearts, Henry Smith; Pipe Bearer, Nell Peterson; Bowl Bearer, Susan Henly; Fiddlers Three, Doyel Cotton, Billy Andrews, Thomas Wheelless; Humpty Dumpties, Wallace Keys Lewis Adams, S. J. Starnes; Little Miss Muffett and Spider, Martha Kearney and Thelma Clark; Jack Horner, Ike Kearney; Old Woman in the Show and her Children, Zeta Mae Tyndall, Sylvia Burns, Mary Daly Korneg, Roy Thomas, Theodore Collins; Jack and Jill, Wallace Gray and Mickey Pope; Sandman, Matt McDade; Mary and her Lamb, Mondelle Holleman; Alice in Wonderland, Mary Watkins; Lucy Locket, Louise Turner; and, Kitty Fisher, Edna Gillis.

*****

ORCHESTRA (Continued from P. 3)
 tra played the new version of "Star Dust" at the end of the banquet.

Needless to say the music was a tremendous success and Mr. Byerly has climbed another rung on his march up.

*****

MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION CON-DUCTS CHAPEL

Chapel Friday morning was conducted by the Ministerial Association with Miss Doris Rhodes and Mr. Howell Perry leading the services. Miss Rhodes led the responsive reading after which she spoke briefly on "what it means to be a Christian." Mr. Perry then spoke on the duties of a Christian student.

This was something of a novelty to the student body. It is not often that two speakers from among our very ranks speak so directly to us. During the talks, the students were remarkably attentive and all seemed to profit from the words of Miss Rhodes and Mr. Perry.

Miss Rebecca Midgette gave a short prayer, ending in the praying of the Lord's Prayer. After a song, the assembly was dismissed.

This is the second extra ordinary Chapel program this week. Tuesday a choric-speech choir under the direction of Miss Peyatt recited several poetic selections. Much to the delight of the audience, the first few were nursery ditties for a warm-up exercise. Following this the choir recited "Spin, Lassie", "It Was a Lover and His Lass", "St. Catherine", "Barter", "The Desert Afterglow", The 23rd Psalm, and "The Music Makers."

Much credit is due to Miss Peyatt and the girls who took part in the program. Reciting from memory, these girls kept in perfect rhythm and unison.

*****

STYLE SHOW AT RALEIGH

On Thursday, April 25, Mrs. Moon took her home economics students to Raleigh to participate in the Annual Style Show sponsored by the textile students at State College. The girls participating were Aileen Rogers, Ruth Stallings, Hattie Avery, Rosa Ella White, Matilda Whitley, Ruby Gore, Lois Lee Britton, Margaret White Byrum, Nell Peterson, Claire Hill, Myrtie Gresham, Louise Shearon, Mary Watkins, Kathleen Britt, Lizzie Smith, and Dorothy Long.

Those winning prizes were: Louise Shearon, first prize; Margaret White Byrum, second prize; and Matilda Whitley, third prize. Pictures were taken individually and grouped.

After the style show, chartered busses carried the participants to the textile building where students conducted them about, exhibiting different weaves and patterns.

A reception was held in the Y.M.C.A. building before leaving.