

WELCOME

WELCOME

Volume XI

Louisburg College, Louisburg, N. C., May 7, 1952

Number 5

HIGH SCHOOL REPRESENTATIVES VISIT CAMPUS

Ed Driver Named Head Of Men's S. G. Council

Jordan Vice-President; Edwards New Secretary-Treasurer; Officers Installed At Ceremonies Held on April 25

Final elections for president of the men's student government were held on Friday, April 18, and the victor was Edwin Driver, of Louisburg. The voting took place during the chapel hour, and the installation was held on April 25. Ed, as the new president is called by his friends, graduated from Bunn High School in 1950. He worked for a year in a local department store where he heard about Louisburg College. Starting as a Liberal Arts student in September, 1951, Ed easily made friends and settled down to college life.

Program Is Given At Butner Hospital

A group of Louisburg College students gave a program at the State Hospital at Butner on Sunday, April 20. The program was given in the recreation auditorium of the hospital.

The College Octet, including Virginia Bradsher and Rubie Riggan, Soprano; Lota Leigh Harrison and Charlotte Brockwell, Alto; Willis Goodrum and Bob Kennedy, Sidney Epperson and Eugene Turner, Bass; and Miss Sarah Foster, director, gave a program of sacred music. Solos were presented by Willis Goodrum and Virginia Bradsher.

Concluding the program was a poem by Thelbert Whitt, and a reading by Mary Ruth Clark.

Books and magazines were collected at the College and taken to the recreation center for the patients.

Wins from Morrisette

Ed won the presidency over Turk Morrisette, of Elizabeth City, and Eugene Dickerson, of Epsom.

Marvin Jordan of Weldon, was elected vice-president of the group. Marvin defeated Eugene Mercer, of Lumberton.

Edwards Is Elected

Douglas Edwards was chosen secretary-treasurer.

The outgoing student council gave up their duties to the new president and council during the installation ceremony on April 25. Sam Elliott, outgoing president, read the oath which was repeated by the incoming council members.

Gives Brief Talk

Ed Driver gave a brief and impressive talk following the taking of the oath.

The new student takes office six weeks before the end of the spring semester.

THE OAK

The 1952 edition of the Louisburg College yearbook, THE OAK, is expected to arrive during the first week in May, according to a report made today.

Covers for the annual will be in blue and silver, it was stated by Business Manager Phil Johnson.

Eddie Lee Elks Is Chemistry Award Winner

Presentation of the annual chemistry award to the student of inorganic chemistry with the highest average went to Eddie Lee Elks. Bobby Deaver and Graham Kennedy also were presented awards for their outstanding work in organic chemistry. Mr. C. Ray Pruette, head of the chemistry department, made the presentation during the chapel period on April 29.

Recognized for Work

Recognized for creditable work in chemistry were Eugene Dickerson, Riley Godley, Bryant Balkum, Sidney Epperson, and June Tew.

Prior to the giving of the awards, Mr. Pruette explained why every person should have some knowledge and understanding of natural sciences.

Dr. H. M. Poteat Will Address L. C. Graduates Fisher and Brown Will Speak; Exercises Begin May 23

Dr. Hubert M. Poteat, of Wake Forest College, will make the address for the Louisburg College commencement exercises on Monday, May 26. Dr. Poteat, of the Latin, Language, and Literature departments of Wake Forest College, is a past potentate of the Shrine Order.

Honors to Be Announced

Following the commencement address, diplomas and certificates will be awarded, and other honors will be announced.

Commencement exercises for 1952 will begin on Friday, May 23, with the recital given by the Department of Music.

On Saturday morning a class breakfast will be given at the Murphy House. During this social hour, class day exercises will take place.

The annual alumni-alumnae banquet will be held in the dining hall on Saturday at 7 o'clock. Speaker for this occasion will be Dr. R. E. Brown, superintendent of the Raleigh district of Methodist Churches.

Baccalaureate Sermon

Dr. Edgar B. Fisher, pastor of the Duke Memorial Church of Durham, will deliver the baccalaureate sermon.

Fifty Schools Were Invited

Program Includes May Day Pageant and Dance

Seniors from fifty high schools in North Carolina will arrive on the Louisburg College campus Saturday to participate in a High School Day and to observe the colorful May Day Pageant which will be presented on Saturday afternoon.

Following the May Day crowning of Miss June Tew, of Erwin, as Queen of the May, a dance will be held in the college gymnasium.

During their stay on the campus, high school students will be given a glimpse of life at Louisburg College. College students will show the visitors the various spots of interest and answer any and all questions of the young people.

The May Day pageant is also expected to draw a large crowd of alumni and Franklin county residents.

Invitations Sent

Invitations were sent to the following high schools: Massey Hill, Aycock, Red Oak, Scotland Neck, Enfield, Weldon, William R. Davie, Boone Trail, Lafayette, John Graham, Middleburg, Rich Square, Sunbury, Plain View, Seven Springs, Benson, Four Oaks, New Hope, Grantham, Rosewood, Pine Level, Eureka, Cleveland, Corinth-Holders, Gold Sand, Hope Mills, Asheboro, Methodist Orphanage, Wendell, Angier, Greensboro, Durham, Norlina, Creedmoor, Bethesda, Coats, Weeksville, Colerain, Greenville, Fuquay Springs, Moyock, Aulander, South Mills, Edenton, Taylors Bridge-Ingold, Elizabeth City, and Coopers.

THE 1952 MAY COURT AT LOUISBURG COLLEGE

Pictured here are the royalty of the Louisburg College May Court for 1952. Seated, from left to right: Miss Patricia Monk, of Roxboro; Miss Judy Perry, of Morehead City; Miss Vivian Miller, Maid-of-Honor, of Elizabeth City; MISS JUNE TEW, QUEEN, of Erwin; Mrs.

Jackie Hall Chestnut of Roxboro; and Miss Joyce Guthrie, of Harkers Island. Standing, left to right: Miss Margaret Jackson, of Spring Hope; Miss Audrey Todd, of Lumberton; Miss Pearl Grant, of Jackson; Miss Jennette Miller, of Hillsboro; Miss Rubie Riggan, of Warrenton; Miss Barbara Forbes, of Shiloh.

May Day Program

The crowning of May Queen June Tew will highlight the May Day activities Saturday afternoon. "A Mother Goose Tale" will be presented for the entertainment of the May Queen and her court.

Maid-of-Honor Vivian Miller will crown the queen. Ben Price will serve as King, and escorting Miss Miller will be Turk Morrisette.

Attendants Named

May Court attendants and escorts are: Jeannette Miller with Bill Brogden, Jackie Hall Chestnut with Bill Chestnut, Audrey Todd with Clifton Johnson, Barbara Forbes with Bill Pierce, Pearl Grant with Bob Kennedy, Judy Perry with Bryant Balkum, Joyce Guthrie with Charlie Creekmore, Rubie Riggan with Willis Goodrum, Margaret Jackson with Jack Denning, and Patricia Monk with Thelbert Whitt.

The Mother Goose story will be (Continued on Page 4)