THE CECIL W. ROBBINS LIBRARY LOUISBURG COLLEGE LOUISBURG, N.C. 27549

PRAISE YE THE LORD

ALL YE

Volume XIII.

Louisburg College, Louisburg, N. C., Thursday, December 17, 1953

Number 5

Opera Combines Mirth Alumna, Miss Adelaide And Music

tertained Louisburg faculty and students on Thursday night, Dec. 3, with a presentation of two oneact comedy operas, "Sunday Ex- in Louisburg; so she feels right at cursion" and "The Telephone."

"The Telephone" centers around High School. the inhibiting effect of a modern device to a suitor attempting to school, Miss Johnson enrolled in change, for better or worse, his our own College as a day student. status in life. After almost keep- She majored in history. Most of ing a frustrated bachelor from becoming a potentially married man, diploma here has been during the the telephone eventually comes to summer. Miss Johnson got her A. his aid and makes possible the B. degree from Wake Forest and communication of the marriage her M. E. from Woman's College in proposal from the train station. The Greensboro. She has since been a answer is "yes." The story was special music student here. written by Gian Menotti, the music by Carlo Menotti.

pretation of the ever characteristi- a business teacher. She said, "I cally human theme, "boy chases wouldn't have been surprised then girl" and vice-versa. Two young if someone had said I would teach ladies, sightseeing in New York history, but never business." over a weekend, incidentally elude two young men also visiting New York until the double twosome finally meet on the train home to ive in any sport. She also likes to New Haven. The complicated plotting of the couples reaches a suc- candy is baked chocolate nut fudge. cessful "finale" with the usual boy plus girl combination. The story was written by Arnold Sungaard, the music by Alec Wilder.

Among audience remarks about the performance was one by a fac- and I know we are glad to have her ulty member: "It was well done, here. quite charming," and another by various students: "I enjoyed it."

"performed the world premier of this opera in New York City on April 17, 1953." The stated purpose of the Grass Roots Opera fifth quadrennial conference of the than a grateful, happy smile from movement is (1) to give all qualified singers opportunity to equip which will convene on December how a group, composed of the colthemselves through experience be- 28, at the University of Kansas, lege students in the Methodist fore the footlights for a profession- Lawrence, Kansas, to run through Church School, felt when they al career, (2) to give vocational January 2, 1954. More than 2300 presented a Christmas program at singers opportunity for develop- college students and adult coun- the Franklin County Home on the ment of their talents, and (3) to selors representing every state and Sunday afternoon of Dec. 6. acquaint the people of North Carolina, from childhood on, with the participate. beautiful music to be found in opera.

HOLIDAY Johnson, Returns as The Grass Roots Opera Co. en- Commercial Dept. Head Miss Adelaide Johnson, our new business teacher, was born here home here. She attended Louisburg

After graduating from high her schooling since receiving her

Miss Johnson said that when she was going to school here, she nev-"Sunday Excursion" is an inter- er dreamed she would be back as > Hiking is Miss Johnson's favorite never be forgotten. sport, and she likes to watch basketball. She says she isn't very actread and make candy. Her favorite Miss Johnson has many connections with Louisburg College. Her Louisburg also.

She said it is very nice to be back,

The cast seen Thursday night MSM Holds Conference

"Christ Transforming Culture" including 200 foreign students will

Junior Class Sponsors True Spirit of Christmas

Hilda Gross, a young girl from the small country of Austria, would like very much to come to America to school. Miss Mary Bethea had the pleasure of meeting Hilda Holidays on Friday evening, Dec. while on the Methodist Youth Caravan on their European tour during June, July, and August. The the Junior Class under the direcgirls at Louisburg College have tion of their sponsor, Mr. J. F. decided to do all they can to help Jones. bring her to school in America and preferably to Louisburg.

To that end, the girls this year eating cookies. The party was held plan to contribute the sum which in the social hall in Main. A festthey would spend on Christmas ive atmosphere was created by the gifts to each other in order that soft lights, holly, and pine. Hilda's dream might come true. Most of the gifts given between mittee were: M. G. Bobbitt, the girls are insignificant — things which will soon be forgotten but by helping Hilda each one Judy Finch, Bonnie Carnes, Shirwill give something which will

Some of the girls plan to give mittee were: Mary Richardson, up something which they like; for Barbara Driver, Rose Rogers, J. instance, coca colas and movies. By doing this, the gift will mean much On the entertainment committee more to them and to the one they were: Merle Royster, Liz Tyndall, are helping who knows what it is Ray Williamson, Gerald Ellen, to be hungry, cold, and sleep on Clara Wright, Thurston Faulkner, brother and three sisters attended the floor. This will bring in the true spirit of Christmas as there

(Continued on Page 3)

Students Give Program At County Home

What could cause one to be fillwill be the program theme of the ed with the Christmas spirit more Methodist Student Movement an aged person? That explains an enjoyable evening. who will discuss theological and a way that the feelings of faith, educational aspects of modern cul- hope, and good will inspired all. Those active in the presentapus-style "bull sessions," daily Bi- tion of this program were Zelda Coor, president of the Sunday Eve celebration of Holy Commun- School Class; Jackie Farrow, Kermit Williams, Ellen Marks, and Mattie Hunter. Also credit should be given to the teacher of the class, Mrs. Evelyn Williamson. This trip proved so inspiring to the college students that plans for

The Dramatics Club and the Glee The singing of carols and the Club will present a Christmas pa- son, Christmas caroling will be reading of the beautiful Christmas geant, "Back to Bethlehem," on sponsored by the "Y" on the eve-There will be eminent speakers, scriptures was presented in such the evening of Dec. 17 under the ning of Dec. 16. All Louisburg

CAMPUS IS SCENE OF VARIED EVENTS The Louisburg College students

FESTIVITIES

A large fir tree in front of Wright Dormitory and Main which has been hung with multicolored lights is the only Christmas tree to be seen on the campus. Running cedar, colored lights, and holly frame the door of Main and the front door of Wright Dormitory.

The center attraction in the parlor of Wright is the sparkling Christmas tree in the corner. A nativity scene and other decorations add to the Christmas atmosphere.

Open house was held from 4 p. m. to 5 p. m. on Dec. 13, in Wright. The Women's Student Government sent invitations to the faculty, men students, and other guests in Louisburg. Parents were also welcomed to the event.

The girls acted as hostesses in their respective rooms during that hour.

Refreshments consisted of hot tea, mints, peanuts, and open-faced sandwiches. Those who took part in the greeting, serving, and registration of guests were: Jackie Farrow, Rae Harris, Libby Broome, Mattie Hunter, Jean Brown, Sue Manning, Ellen Marks, Lorine Smith, Merle Royster, Bonnie Carnes, Mary Richardson, Phyllis Davis, Jean Massengill, Katie Hocutt, and Shirley Tyson.

The "Y" presented a chapel program, "Seek Ye The King," on Tuesday, Dec. 15. Jackie Farrow, Zelda Coor, Fern Tharrington, and Tryon Lancaster took part in the program. Dr. Blumenfeld's French class sang a French Christmas song; and Sue Manning also sang a solo, "Angel's Seranade."

In further observance of the seastudents are welcome to join the The Glee Club will open the carolers whose musical tour will last an hour or more. Upon their return to the college, the group will be served refreshments in the cafeteria. To climax holidays events, the dining hall will be the scene of the annual Christmas dinner on the evening of Dec. 17. A Christmas program is being planned to be given at the dinner. Concluding the seasonal activities before the holidays begin, the entire chapel period on Dec. 18 will be devoted to the reading of Jones' "The Birthday of Hope" by Alice Lea Dennis.

Honor Society Will Initiate New Members In the Near Future

Phi Theta Kappa has four pledges rective" will be used. who will be initiated into the honorary society in the near future.

Epsilon Chapter are: R. A. Baxley, Jerry Gibson. Students participat-Fern Tharrington, Weldon Lucas, Alice Lea Dennis, and Jackie Far- Springfield, Mo., President of Narow. Those to be initiated are: Sue tional Conference of Methodist Manning, Rae Harris, Philip Bunn, Youth and George A. Goodman, and Libby Broome. These students Corvallis, Ore., chairman of the are eligible by the averages of the National Methodist Student Comlast semester of the 1952-53 year. mission. Requirements are a B-average and a unanimous acceptance by pres- dents will seek to come to grips Secretary-Treasurer. ent members.

The object of Phi Theta Kappa, a nationally recognized honorary society, is "to promote scholarship, souri, in 1910. Official recognition Manning and Janet Bailey; altos, eant are: Anne Mann, Sue Manto develop character and to culti- as a national society for junior vate fellowship among the students colleges by the American Associaof both sexes in the junior col- tion of Junior Colleges was in 1929. leges of the United States."

Stephens College, Columbia, Mis- and the Panama Canal Zone.

ture, study groups, forums, camble studies, a special New Year's ion, and other activities. Study books which include "The Conscience of Culture," "Worship and The Gamma Epsilon Chapter of the Arts," and "The Christian Cor-

The conference will be under the direction of Dr. H. D. Bollin- another visit were discussed. The members of the Gamma ger, Dr. Harvey C. Brown, and ing will be Richard Thompson,

> During this conference, the stuwith problems and issues of Christian faith and action.

At the present time there are 141 The fraternity had its origin at active chapters located in 36 states plans made for future engagements Burgess. All characters will be

Glee Club News

The 1953-54 Officers for the Colof the regular meetings last month. Sue Manning was elected Presi-

Miss Sarah Foster, director of the club, has selected the members of the lighting effects. the Sextet. The sopranos are Sue James Alford.

There have been no definite lis Davis, Jo Ellen Floyd, Lucy for the Glee Club.

sponsorship of the "Y."

Party

welcomed the nearing Christmas

11, at 7:30 with a Christmas party. The party was sponsored by

Everyone enjoyed dancing,

Members of the decorating com-

Chairman; Jean Massengill, Edna

Mahler, Jo Floyd, Carole Smith,

ley Tyson, and Billie Green. Those serving on the refreshment com-

B. Slaughter, and Curtis Adams.

and Doug Faulkner. Sheldon Hare,

Tommy Nevils, Harold Leary, and

Margaret Ogburn were in charge of tickets. The clean-up committee consisted of M. G. Bobbitt, Kent-

wood Turner, Martin Poyner, Marvin Gregory, and Robert Jennings.

An admission of thirty-five cents was charged in order to raise some money for the Junior

Everyone seemed to have a wonderful time and to appreciate the

Juniors' efforts to give everyone

'Back to Bethlehem'

Class treasury.

playing games, drinking punch and program with Christmas selections and will provide background music throughout the pageant.

Everyone will participate in the choral scripture readings, and monologue parts will be given by Marvin Gregory. Patsy George will read the prologue poem. Robert Stainback, Rodney Nelson, Allen Shearin and Kermit Williams will present a dramatic episode of the shepherd scene, and Robert Frazier, Billy McCullen, and Tryon Lancaster will give the dramatic episode of the wise men scene. Those included in the nativity lege Glee Club were elected at one scene are: Mary, Rae Harris; Joseph, Weldon Lucas; angel, Bonnie Carnes. Little Emma Ruth Bardent of the Club; Marvin Gregory, tholomew, Lynn Williamson, and Vice-President, and Frances Baker, Blake York of Louisburg will appear as cherubs in this scene.

Durwood Johnson is in charge of

Others participating in the pag-Jane Post and Libby Broome; and ning, Tryon Lancaster, Myrtle the Baritones are Bill Noel and Miller, Margaret Ogburn, Mattie Hunter, Martha Ann Purdue, Phyldressed in Biblical costumes.

HONOR ROLL

Martha	Ann Per	due	2.95
Shirley	Tyson		2.66

HONORABLE MENTION

	Clara Wright	2.41
	Myrtle Miller
	Elizabeth Broome	2.17
	Jean Massengill	2.11
	Billy Noel	2.07
	Cathrine Register	2.05
Í	Carolyn Jones	2.05
1	Weldon Lucas	2.02