Indians Down Hurricanes 83-74

Louisburg's first road trip turned out to be an 83-74 upset at Pembroke on December 15. The Hurricanes, favored over the Indians, had many bad breaks during the rugged battle.

Ed Woodhouse was the high scorer, collecting 20 points, while sharpshooting Bob Burkhart was second high with 17. The Hurricanes played hard to down the Pembroke team, but lack of time and too many fouls hurt our hustling five. Bill Yorker Sole Vet on Varsity Varker, better known as "Just Plain Bill," is the only veteran on the varsity this year. His basketball career started in Henderson High School where he played forward for the Mighty Big Blues before he entered the Air Force. While stationed at Lowry Air Force Base in Denver, Colorado, he played one season. After being shipped to Chateauroux, France, he was outstanding as a guard for three cage seasons.

When he was discharged from service Bill returned to his home town, Henderson, North Carolina. His next major move was entering Louisburg College. Varker has seen a lot of action this season with the Hurricanes.

Larry Tetterton Misses Chowan Game

A mild case of pneumonia put giant 6'3", substitute center, Larry Tetterton in the bed. Tetterton, a former star at Bethel High School was very upset when his doctor told him to stay in bed for a few days. Larry hated to miss the trip and the game, but he was well enough for the next game.
