

"Where's Charlie?" Next for Players

Production has begun on "Where's Charlie?", a widely known musical, to be presented here May 16, 17, and 18. "Where's Charlie?" is based on the play by Brandon Thomas "Charlie's Aunt," which was once done by Jack Benny. Comments on the play "Charlie's Aunt" by Mr. Robert Versteeg, director, include, "Clearest example of a farce in the English language," and "Longest continuously run farce in the world."

Principals of the play are Alex Speer from Halifax, Virginia, as Spettigue; Fred Cook from Rochester, New York, as Charlie; Bill Williamson from Richmond, Virginia, as Jack; Skyler Odom from Bolton, as Amy; Myfanwy Ward from Aruba, Netherlands Antilles, as Kitty; Linda Haley from Raleigh as Dona Lucia; Earl Fisher from Quantico, Virginia, as Sir Francis with Tommy Vaughan from Ashland, Virginia, as the Photographer and Charles Massey from Durham as Brassett.

The chorus includes Andrea Beaty, Betty Beard, Diane Hicks, Christine Whitehead, Betty Lively, Helen Suggs, Carolyn Burns, Barbara Brown, Dave Garber, Billy Jo Frazier, Ronnie Schaeffer, Kenny Davis, Henry Clement, Neill McDonald and Ken Ray.

The stage crew is led by stage manager Jean Jones from Louisburg. The head electrician is Joe Bradell. Stage Carpenter is Dan Bennett, and the stage crew consists of Bob Pierce, Harry Caldwell, and L. J. Henley. Property Manager is Bill Shelbourne.

The Louisburg Players are a member of the North Carolina Dramatics Association.

"DREAM"

Players expressed their admiration for him by saying "He's great."

Many people attended the play, and the audience's attentiveness and eagerness to react to the situations on stage provided an atmosphere for the comedy.

The team effort of the cast and crew paid off by providing the entertainment Shakespeare must have had in mind when he wrote the play. Without this effort, the play could not have gone on with the professional appearance that it had.

FERRANTE AND TEICHER

"This seemed like an opportune moment for Ferrante to get a plug in for their newest record, 'Lawrence of Arabia.' I was very careful to write that down so that I might pass the information on to everyone. Also Ferrante saw to it that I had the title firmly fixed in my mind.

"Touring season usually lasts for ten and a half months. Last year they travelled approximately 60,000 miles, including a tour in Europe and six trips to California. Teicher hastened to add that they used to travel everywhere by car, but due to the frequency and the distance between engagements, they have resorted to air travel. 'Since our hobby is weightlifting, we used to put our barbells in the back seat and carry them with us everywhere,' grinned Teicher. 'The bellhops at the hotels where we were staying would carry the court ate dinner with the Judges, who were Mrs. Whitley from Raleigh, Dr. Given from Louisburg and Dr. Stone from Louisburg. Also present were citizens from surrounding areas. After dinner, each girl was asked to come before the judges and answer the question "What I hope to be doing in five years." Nonsurprisingly, most of the girls hoped to be a secretary and married!

Following the basketball game, a homecoming dance was held in the college cafeteria.

During the homecoming weekend, sophomores were being reunited with old friends, and freshmen had the opportunity to get to know all those faces they had seen in the annuals of years ago.

our baggage up and we would follow along with the barbells. However, we have given this up since we have begun flying.

"We began playing together when we were kids at Juilliard," remarked Ferrante. 'Almost from the beginning the students are required to play a four-hand keyboard. Lewis and I just happened to pair up, and we've been playing together ever since.' After graduation from Juilliard the two returned to teach theory and composition. According to Teicher they both loved teaching but had to give it up in order to devote full time to concert work.

"Promptly at 8:00 that night, the curtains were drawn, and the spotlights focused on the two artists. After the first number the audience was captivated and remained that way throughout the program and the four encore numbers that followed. The applause was deafening. Ferrante and Teicher had scored a tremendous success.

"The next day the usual gripes about a concert were not to be heard. Comments were full of enthusiasm and acclaim. Perhaps many students resolved to buy an album by the pianists. At any rate, it was an event that will long be remembered by
