Volume XXII

LOUISBURG COLLEGE, N. C., TUESDAY, MAY 28, 1963

No. 5

Commencement Set At L.J.C. for June 2

Speak Graduation Week

Commencement exercises beginthe program. These events include three notable speakers, the annual sophomore breakfast, the alumni banquet, the commencement sermon, the commencement address, and the President's reception honorand the President's reception honoring the graduates, distinguished guests, parents, and friends.

The annual sophomore breakfast is the first event in the commencement exercises. This breakfast is to

Alumni Meet

Freshmen Sponsor May Day Festival

Spring activities reached a climax his life to the study of music. at Louisburg College on Saturday, The program consisted of old ballads and various religious selections, festivities were held.

Things got off with a bang when Pengalesi was the highlight. This the Hurricane nine clashed with selection, which lasted thirty-five greetings and reminiscing of bygone days as the Class of 1953 held its 10-year reunion. A dinner in the Young, who is assistant director and rected the dramatic performance. from 4 until 5 p.m.

ing of Miss Nancy Sisson of Rich- ment. mond, Virginia, as 1963 May Another feature of the evening Queen. Her maid-of-honor is Miss was the small group of male singers Joan Price, Goldsboro; Miss Linda Capps, Jacksonville; Miss Betsy O'Neal, Louisburg; Miss Donnie The concert provided a very mond, Virginia.

entation, the May Day Dance, program given by the Student Consponsored by the Freshman Class, cert Committee. They are now by the Swing Shifters combo.

Patton, Earnhardt, Eubank be held in the Benjamin Duke Cafeteria on Saturday morning, June 1, at 8:30. At this occasion, permanent class officers will be elected.

The alumni banquet, on Saturning June 1 mark the completion day night, June 1, at 7:00 p.m. will of two hard years of work for the graduating class of 1963. There are Dr. D. E. Earnhardt. Dr. Earnhardt many outstanding events found on is a past president of Louisburg Col-(Continued on page 3) provided an evening of entertainment for the students of Louisburg College. This singing group was excellently conducted by Professor Paul Young, who has devoted all among which "Stabat Mater" by rival Wilmington College Saturday minutes, was sung in Latin and ternoon. starred outstanding solos by Vir-Old grads were seen exchanging ginia Yarbrough, Sally Baker, Jean Mayo, and Cheryll Ballen.

Ends Concert Series Here

During "Stabat Mater," James S. B. N. Duke College Union was held accompanist, displayed a fine exfrom 4 until 5 p.m. accompanist, displayed a fine example of his skill at the piano. This The highlight of the whole affair is his first year with the Duke singcame at 8 p.m. with the presenta- ers, and he has done much to aid tion of the May Court and crown- the group in inspiration and enjoy-

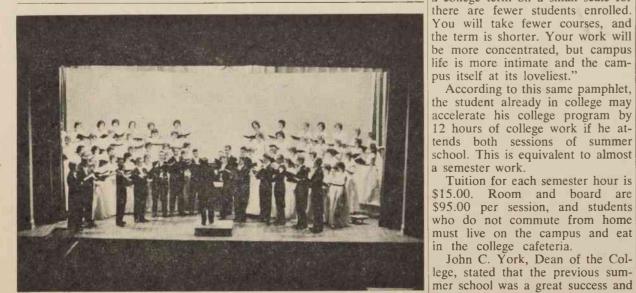

Nancy Forbes of Wake Forest. The representing the Duke Men's Choir. very attractive attendants included They displayed talent equal to the Miss Betty Lively, Durham; Miss Women's Choir and featured very Cohn, New Bern; and Miss Nancy pleasing evening of singing enjoy-Fitzpatrick, Miss Betty Creedle and ment for Louisburg students, as well Miss Susan Hosier, all from Rich- as the faculty and many townspeo-ond, Virginia.

Immediately following the pres
Ple.

This concert also marked the last got under way. Music was provided making plans for next year's concareer. A summer-school session is

Last of Series-The Duke Choir under the direction of Paul Young presents the last of the College Concert Series.

"Where's Charley?"-Louisburg Players end Fine Arts Festival with well received

More to Come

On Thursday night, April 18, the very talented Duke Women's Choir Players Give First Musical; Varying Comments Heard

"Where's Charlie," one of the the actual artistic effect. One faculty son, as Jack Chesney; Fred Cook, good voices brought it through." as Charlie; Myfanwy Ward, as chestra, both under the direction of 'Midsummer Night's Dream'." Mr. Robert Versteeg, who also di-

Members of the audience were than unanimous in their opinions of

Summer Session

Plans Complete

second session will begin on July

"a good time to begin your college

18, and will end on August 23. According to a pamphlet issued most famous of all musical come- member said, "I think it actually dies, was presented by the Louis- came off despite the orchestra and burg Players in the A-C Building despite the scarcity of musical talent on the nights of May 16, 17, and among the leading characters. The 18. The cast included Bill Williamscript, the fine acting, and a few

A student commented, "That My-Kitty; Skyler Odom, as Amy; and fanwy Ward is a dream; she can nine million copies. Alex Speer, as Spettique. Also fea- sing as well as act, and she is 500 tured were a chorus and a small or- per cent better than she was in unanimous in their praise of the initiative and spirit which went as Wilkinson, and Ron Schaeffer phony. into the performance; they were less as Reggie. The chorus included Jack ber, Jon Armstrong, Ken Ray, Ken Davis, Neill McDonald, Bill Frazier, Shelton Williams, Dianne Hicks, Helen Suggs, Betty Beard, Spirituals, folk-songs, and popular spirituals. Barbara Brown, Betty Lively and Henry Clement. The orchestra con-Garber were soloists. sisted of Paul Lavender, Al Old-The second summer school to be held on the Louisburg College campus in recent years will begin its first session on June 10. This session of June 10. This session on June 10. This session on June 10. This session on June 10. This session of June sion will continue until July 16. The College Glee Club Has May Concert by the college, summer school is Sweet strains of American folk a college term on a small scale for songs, modern numbers, and Negro there are fewer students enrolled, spirituals welcomed parents, friends You will take fewer courses, and and alumni to the Louisburg College Glee Club Concert at 8 p.m. be more concentrated, but campus Thursday, May 9. The annual aflife is more intimate and the cam- fair was presented in A-C Auditorium under the direction of Miss eleven short stories and ten poems. According to this same pamphlet, Sarah Foster.

accelerate his college program by sang at the Lion's Club in Frank- the 1920's. A special issue, which 12 hours of college work if he at- linton. They sang several numbers included only selected poetry, was tends both sessions of summer from the concert and were presented printed in the spring of 1960. The school. This is equivalent to almost a semester work.

with gifts from the club for their singing. The group will also sing at the Louisburg College literary so-Tuition for each semester hour is the Alumni Banquet on June 1. cieties in the early years of the $15.00. Room and board are $95.00 per session, and students Horizon," "Moon River" and "Okla- Contributors are who do not commute from home homa." At the Baccalaureate Ser- Ken Ray, Ken Davis, Bill Williammust live on the campus and eat in the college cafeteria.

mon to be given at the Methodison, Catherine Storey, Anna Taft, ist Church June 2 at 11:00 a.m., Phil Palisoul, Eddie Rollins, Earl John C. York, Dean of the Col- the small group will render "150th Fisher, Rhea Elliot, Mary Ann lege, stated that the previous summer school was a great success and that this year's summer school is expected to be even more popular.

Total, Dean of the Colline Sinan group will refluer 150th Roberson, Scott Peace, Nelson Tapfor God." Then at graduation in the A-C Building they will sing "Give expected to be even more popular.

Tisher, Rhea Elliot, Mary Ann Roberson, Scott Peace, Nelson Tapfor God." Then at graduation in the A-C Building they will sing "Give expected to be even more popular.

Festival Ends Month

The Louisburg College Spring Fine Arts Festival opened April 18 with a concert by the Duke University Women's Choir. The sixty-six-member choir was led by Paul Young in its performance of classical, folk, spiritual, and popular songs. A small group of the Men's Choir also presented a few numbers. Following the concert, a reception was held in Main Building by the Louisburg College Concert Committee for the Duke singers and the Louisburg students.

The second in the series of events that highlighted the Spring Fine Arts Festival was the exhibition of some of Dr. Joseph Cox's work. On April 22, Dr. Cox's paintings were placed on exhibit in the Art Gallery, and at 7 p.m. on the same date, he appeared in seminar in the Student Union Cafeteria. Dr. Cox is well-known for his murals in oil, mosaic, enamelled steel, and stained glass that decorate many public buildings in the east and midwest.

On April 30, Betty Smith spoke in an open forum in the College Auditorium. Miss Smith is the author of a new novel, Joy in the Morning, which will be released in August. This novel is to commemorate the publication of A Tree Grows in Brooklyn, which sold over

On May 6, a film, The Fourth Annual Pablos Casals Festival was shown in Main Auditorium. The Other members of the cast in-cluded Charles Massey as Brassett, Pablo Casals, Maureen Forrester, musical featured the famed cellist, Earl Fisher as Sir Francis, Linda contralto, Alexander Schneider, vio-

The Louisburg College Glee Bartles, Winston Yeatts, Dave Gar- Club, under the direction of Sarah

The interest and enthusiasm with

The Collegian, a collection of short stories and poems written by members of the creative writing class, has been published at Louisburg College. Mr. Lee is advisor, and Frank Wilson is editor of this literary magazine. Selections include

The Collegian is being revived On May 20, the "small group" this year for the second time since

Contributors are Robert Howells,