

Dorm Councils For Women Organized

A dorm council for each woman's dormitory has been organized and is widely believed to be a rendering valuable service.

This Council hears all cases pertaining to the violations of rules regulating hours and sign-in procedures. It has the authority to impose disciplinary penalties upon any resident of the dormitory. Such penalties are subject to review and approval by the Dean of Students.

Members of the Dorm Council include the Assistant Resident Counselor, the House President, the Vice-President, and the duly elected Hall Proctor. The House Counselors serve as advisors.

Those serving on their respective Dorm Councils are: Kenan Hall: Janet Leister, Mary Eloise Hearn, Michelle Varsho, Debbie Robbins, and Mrs. Rowena Wilhelm.

Merritt Hall: Debbie Maloney, Shelley Johnson, Beth Carraway, Karen Allen, Susie Dickens, Pam Taylor, Julia Stokes, Lida Gardner, and Kathy Curtis.

Wright Dorm: Paula Lowry, Connie Maxwell, Laurie Gunter, Carolyn Copelin, Sandra Shoupe, Karen Little, Jane Hicklin, and Marsha Boisseau.

Life Enrichment Emphasis, featuring the Reverend Ernest R. Porter as speaker was held from September 25th through September 27. Mr. Porter spoke on various Christian themes, illustrating his messages with references to the United Methodist Church, its witness and ministry. Rap sessions were held in girls' dorms and, for boys, in the student lounge. Mr. Porter also took part in informal conversations with many students on campus.

Mr. Porter is a native of Mississippi, a graduate of Illsaps College, and of Duke University Divinity School. He is married and has two sons and is currently pastor of Centenary Methodist Church in New Bern, N. C. He is a member of the Board of Trustees of North Carolina Wesleyan College and a member and Vice Chairman of the Progress Committee of the National Council on Evangelism.

Glee Club Hard At Work

The Glee Club began rehearsals August 29. It is directed by Miss Sarah Foster and consists of thirty-five voices. Miss Anne Rose is accompanist. The Glee Club meets for rehearsal twice a week. Preparation has begun for the annual Christmas Concert, which is to be presented December 4.

Seventeen members of the Glee Club were selected to participate in the Chapel Choir. They are as follows: Richard Brooks, Peggy Carawan, Star Cardwell, Beth Carraway, Daphne Cartledge, Jack Harris, Allen Hawks, Vickie Hawks, Johnny King, Debbi Maloney, Becky Monroe, Joe Orr, Christine Porter, Marla Roberts, Robbie Sanders, Steve Simmons, and Pat Wortham.

The Chapel Choir sings at special events on campus including graduation. It also gives several out-of-town programs throughout the year. It will make its first appearance at Parents' Day on October 6.

Webb Elected Chairman:

Positions On Senate Filled

Among the devices set up to represent and govern the student body is the Senate. Composed of student government officers and elected representatives (approximately one Senator per 25 dormitory and off campus students), the Senate is fundamental in maintaining an efficient self government. In addition to serving with the Judicial Board in disciplinary measures, the Senate is the legislative body of the S. G. A. By using the approaches outlined in the handbook, this body helps students to gain privileges as well as utilizing the already existent rights of the students.

The chairman of the 1973-74 Senate is S. G. A. Vice-President, Mike Webb. Nell Lee serves as secretary. Elected Senators include: Hillman - Chris Burns, Steve Carroll, Allen Murray, Don Duggar, and John Braddy; Patten - Carlos Clark, Garry Pendleton, Jerry Tucker, Aaron Vick, Howard McCullough, and Barry Arnett; Franklin - A. J. Stuart, Lee Pirkey, Denny Thompson, and Warren Dickey; Kenan Hall - Jeff Eldridge, David Waite, Lynn Ivey, Ed Goss, Scott Traynham, and Jan Moses; Merritt Hall - Ruth Madhu, Cathy Johnson, Scottie Blalock, Becky Burnette, Jackie Pascarella, and Deborah Whaley; Wright - Paula Arcese, Jann Perry, Teresa Bennett and Jane Hicklin. Windy Williams and Joe Daniel are off campus representatives.

The Senate meets the first Thursday of each month at 5:30 p. m. in the Senate room. If you have any suggestions or complaints, please contact your Senator. He is elected to serve you.

SENTIMENTALITY is no indication of a warm heart. Nothing weeps more copiously than a chunk of ice.

Life Today

1973-74 Senate

Two Former Professors Stricken

Two retired LC professors died recently within a week. Miss Sarah Richardson and Mrs. Stella J. Mohn died on Friday, September 7, and Monday, September 3, respectively. Miss Richardson was former dean of women and professor emerita of English. Mrs. Mohn was former head of the Music Department and the widow of LC President Arthur W. Mohn. Miss Richardson died in Raleigh, N. C., and Mrs. Mohn in Coral Gables, Florida.

Miss Richardson was a native of Kenly, N. C., and a graduate of Clinton High School. She received her A. B. from The University of North Carolina in Greensboro and her M. A. Degree from Duke. She also did graduate work at Candler School of Theology, Emory University, in Atlanta, Georgia. She had served as the principal of an elementary school in Winston-Salem and had taught high school English in Winston-Salem, Clayton, Reidsville, and The Children's Home in Winston-Salem. She was director of Christian education at Edenton Street Methodist Church in Raleigh for five years immediately before coming to Louisburg College.

Miss Richardson came to Louisburg College in 1960. While at Louisburg, she was an active member of The Louisburg United Methodist Church, a member of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, a Sunday School teacher, a youth counselor, and a member of the official board of the church. She was a member of The League of Women Voters and The American Association of University Women. Miss Richardson's other achievements include extensive travel in the United States, Canada, and Europe and five year's work with the physically handicapped. She was the author of a history of Horne Memorial Methodist Church in Clayton.

A memorial service was held for Miss Richardson in Clayton on Saturday morning, September 8, at Horne Memorial United Methodist Church. Officiating were Dr. C. W. Robbins, president of Louisburg College; the Rev. Vassar Jones, pastor of Louisburg United Methodist Church; and the Rev. Norman Knight, pastor of Horne Memorial United Methodist Church, Clayton.

Mrs. Mohn was a native of Lindsey, Kentucky the former Stella J. Eruth. She taught music briefly at the Ruth Hargrove Institute, a Methodist elementary and secondary school. Her husband was headmaster of The Key West School, Key West Florida, from 1908 to 1916. In 1916 they sold their farm in Ohio and bought a citrus grove in Key West. It produced until 1946, when it was destroyed by a hurricane.

From Key West School, Mr. Mohn became president of Bennett Memorial School in London, Kentucky. He became president of Louisburg College in 1922 and served until 1929. Mrs. Mohn taught music and served as head of the music department during her husband's administration here.

In 1958 about 80 of her former students in the Key West held a reunion in her honor.

Mrs. Mohn attended Heidelberg Academy College and was a graduate of Ohio Wesleyan University. She was a member of the Coral Gables Musicians Club, the Woman's Cancer Association of The University of Miami, and The First United Methodist Church of Coral Gables. She had lived in Coral Gables for the last 19 years.

Mrs. Mohn is survived by a daughter, Betty. Services were held in Bucyrus, Ohio.

SKY DIVING

Find Freedom In Free Fall

Come Fly With Us

Phone - 496-9223
Louisburg, N. C.

ROWE'S MEN SHOP

Louisburg, N. C.

CONVENIENT
QUALITY SERVICE
FROM QUALITY
DRY CLEANERS
Louisburg, N. C.

Leggett

"Your Happy Shopping Store"

WELCOME STUDENTS