

Columns

LOUISBURG COLLEGE, LOUISBURG, N.C.

Monday, August 23, 1976

WELCOME FRESHMAN !!!

The Columns staff bids the 450 freshman welcome. Along with the fantastic friends and good times one can make and have at Louisburg College will come seemingly frivolous demands from one's roommate, resident counselors, and professors. But if one keeps an open mind, he will realize the college's rules are established to protect and benefit the individual and most professors' assignments are given to accomplish the purposes of a particular course.

Many freshman will feel a twinge of disappointment when they discover that the college cannot possibly provide all the comforts of home. One should not bemoan these situations to the degree that he overlooks Louisburg's assets. The intramural program affords fun as well as the opportunity to meet people. Over a dozen active organizations are offered. The Humanities courses gives one a chance to get out of the dorm and enjoy cultural events.

Each freshman is encouraged to join and actively participate in LC's activities and events. Above all, freshmen and sophomores alike should keep in mind that what one gets out of his college experience is determined by what he puts into it.

RESIDENT ASSISTANTS GET TRAINING

On Saturday, August 19, resident counselors and assistants attended a workshop dealing with problems which freshmen and returning sophomores may encounter.

The group was welcomed by Louisburg President J. Allen Norris, Jr. and Dean Craig Eller. Mr. Jim Belsches, psychology professor, led the group in a series of exercises beginning with group building. Human relations and critical incidents were also part of the counselors' and assistants' training.

HUMANITIES EVENTS BEGIN

The Louisburg Artists Multimedia will display its work on August 22. A Humanities credit, the exhibit will be held in the Art Gallery located in the Fine Arts Building. The artists' works will be shown until September 22.

LC's chaplain, Sidney Stafford, will speak at Chapel on September 31.

Jordan Belson and Norman McLaren will appear in the award-winning film, "A Kinetic Voyage" which will be shown on September 14.

SGA SPONSORS "AIRPORT 75"

"Airport 75" will be shown in the Multipurpose room in Jordan Student Center on Tuesday. Another SGA-sponsored event, a concert-dance, is scheduled for Friday.

VOLLEYBALL MEETING PLANNED

A meeting for all women who plan to try out for the women's volleyball team is planned for Monday at 1:00 in the Conference room in JSC. The team is coached by Coach Terry Pettit.

Last year, the Hurricanes placed tenth in the nation after representing the Carolinas, Virginia, Kentucky, and Tennessee in the national tournament in Miami, Florida. The 1976 national finals will be held in San Diego, California.

For your private dorm
telephone, call or visit

Carolina Telephone Co.
112 E. Franklin St.
Phone 496-9111

Various models & colors