seen Brigadoon onstage before. He also feels that this is a great way of getting students involved in school activities, as well as giving experienced students an outlet. "No other place you can go offers the opportunity and experience that Louisburg College does," states Charley John, "why just last year, in Lil' Abner, we had people who started out with just one line and ended up with more than some main characters."

One more thing, if you hear anyone on campus talking like Scotty off of 'Star Trek', you can just about bet that they are in Brigadoon. The Drama Club is going the whole nine yards. "Not only is this giving the actors a chance to work with and accent, but it's going to give the girls a chance to see some hairy knees 'neath those kilts."
