

The Columns

Vol. 47 VI

Louisburg College

April 1988

COLLEGE PLAYERS PRESENT "GUYS AND DOLLS"

Gannon Receives Scholarship Award

The Louisburg College Players presented their spring musical production, "Guys and Dolls," April 15-19, at 8 p.m., in the Multi-Purpose Room of the Jordan Student Center on the College campus.

A combination of dance, song, comedy and romance, the musical deals with a group of crooked gamblers in the underworld, Nathan Detroit, a floating crap-game operator and his ever faithful companion (and fiancée for 14 years), Adelaide, provide great amusement throughout the story. Adelaide's Hot Box Dancers compliment the characters and add diversity and excitement to the production. The romance in the production occurs when Sky Masterson, a gentleman gambler, meets a beautiful soul-saving woman named Sarah. She falls for Sky and tries to salvage his soul. What finally happens if both surprising and entertaining.

The Louisburg College production of "Guys and Dolls," is directed by Charles

Smith, professor of drama at the College. Music and lyrics are by Frank Loesser; and the book, by Jo Swerling and Abe Burrows.

CAST

Nicely-Nicely -- Charles Johnson
Benny Southstret -- Marshall Carroll
Rusty Charlie/Cuban Dancer -- Joey Biltmore
Sarah Brown -- Deborah Joyce
Arvide Abernathy -- Ted Henson
Mission Band -- Rusty Hamilton, Joan Thomas, Ellis Jones
Harry the Horse -- David Mitchell
Lt. Brannigan -- Mike deVente
Nathan Detroit -- David Raper
Angie the Ox -- Jimmy Wrigglesworth
Miss Adelaide -- Kay Porter
Sky Masterson -- John Lawson
Mimi -- Colleen Thomas
General Matilda B. Carwright -- Sheila Mullins
Big Jule -- John Wichard
Drunk -- Robbie Harper
Walter/Master of Ceremonies -- Tommy Pike
Hot Box Dancers -- Linda Brown, Daren Faulkner, Kristi Ding, Colleen Thomas Street People -- Donna Dean, Kim Waters

Staff

Sophomore Kelly Gannon of Staatsburg, N.Y., was recently awarded a $1,000 alumni scholarship to attend Greensboro College in Greensboro, N.C.

Gannon was one of five students out of 900 applicants to compete in the 1988 Distinguished Scholars Competition. She was selected on the basis of academic achievement and a personal interview.

Gannon is Secretary of Phi Theta Kappa (scholastic honor fraternity); a member of the student Disciplinary Committee; and is completing her second year as Head Student Resident at Louisburg College.

Ensemble Takes in Washington, New York

Staff

During the recent spring recess, the Louisburg College Ensemble travelled to Washington and New York City to perform in the Washington Cathedral and the Cathedral of Saint John the Divine in New York City.

On Sunday, March 6, they provided a half-hour of a capella sacred music from the Renaissance period to the 20th century as the choral prelude to the worship service in the Washington Cathedral. On Monday, they travelled to New York City to perform a full-length a cappella concert of sacred and secular music.

The 16 singers, 8 men and 8 women, also had a chance to do some sight-seeing and took in museums, art galleries and monuments. In addition, they attended three plays including Elmer Gantry, Shear Madness, and Cats.

Students Raise Money For Heart Association

Staff

Students representing three dormitories on the Louisburg College campus recently raised $300.00 for the American Heart Association as part of the Student Government Association's annual Valentine's Day fund-raiser.

College students Marne Wilson and Dave Watts, representing Kenan dormitory, collectively raised nearly 75% of the $300.00 total. Other students participating in the fund-raiser included Robynne French and Donnie Brown representing Wright dormitory; and Steve Gillooly representing Hillman dormitory.

SGA president Stephanie Leslie, right, presents Franklin County American Heart Association chairperson, Wendy Fuller with check.